

Matthew's Drug Store

The Nyal Line

We are Sole Georgetown Agents for this well known and popular line of Family Remedies and Toilet Specialties. Sold for many years from ocean to ocean. The Nyal Preparations need no special introduction to the public.

Nyal Users are Satisfied Customers.

KODAK, APP. SEPT. 1895. MED. REMEDIES—WILLARD'S CHOCOLATE DRUGS AND STATIONERY

ROYAL PURPLE STOCK SPECULATOR—VACCINE RECORDS AND GRAMMOPHONES

St. George's Church
Rev. Wm. B. L. Th. Foster
Sunday School—
Morning—11 a.m.
Evening—7 p.m.
Sunday School—10 a.m. in basement
Holy Communion 1st and 3rd Sundays of each month at 11 a.m.

CONDENSED NEWS ITEM

Court of Appeal June 14th.—
Potato sold at $4 per bag in Galt on Tuesday.

"You may be the old to go, but you are not too old to have."

Many of the church courts meet during the month of June.

King George had a birthday on Sunday which may be reign.

Memoriam mass again. Make good use of it here.

The prospects for an abundant fruit crop are reported good.

It is reported that there will be fewer June weddings than usual.

Don't miss the concert in the Town Hall, Glenwilliams, Thursday June 7.

Glenwilliams school reports will appear in our next issue.

Our citizens appreciated the band concert last evening by the 5th Band.

The price of wheat continues downward, and the price of bread has dropped considerably.

There is nothing much doing in town in the line of sports. Twenty years ago it was different.

May we suggest that the large stones be taken off where new gravel has been put on our street.

A subscriber wants to know if it is necessary for a milk man to sit on his horse to keep the lid on.

Mr. John Ballantine has been buying a very few feet the past week, caused by stepping on a nail.

On account of Monday being the King's birthday the banks were closed. The rest of us had to work.

Visit to Camp Galt, and again called for a considerable number of tourists who have stationed there.

A large number of books, by the best writers, will be placed on the shelves at the Public Library next Saturday.

Hear the Maple Leaf Quartette, of Galt, at the garden party at Boston Manor Mansions, Friday evening next.

The man who keeps pigs and chickens now doesn't need to care a hoot whether he wins an iron or not.

The German nation now to aid Will cause difficulties.

Still others will buy goods To satisfy the German.

Postmen are a little slow in coming through this year. You'll be able to tell when they come through by the bags walkin' around.

Wonder when the Milk By-law is going to be enforced. We do notice much difference in the mode of handling in some cases as yet.

It's not much of a trick for a military man who's over the dead line for military service to meet himself home for another service.

There appears to be considerable difference of opinion between the men and women as regards regarding the value of town property.

The Women's Patriotic League requested all who have received the little contribution books to kindly return same by Thursday evening June 7th.

There are thousands of small plots throughout the country that are being cultivated for the first time to grow winter vegetables.

The Glass Building Co. have been this day on some late contracts that have been awarded. They are however, somewhat hampered for help in their line.

The large addition to the Georgetown Foundry Co.'s building is about completed. This will give the first a better chance to compete with the continually increasing demand for their product.

Don't forget the garden party under the auspices of the Women's Patriotic League at Mr. L. E. Fleck's, on Friday evening, June 2nd. An excellent program will be provided and a good time is to be had for all.

Mr. D. A. McLaughlin, Mervell, is selling his well known Jewels by auction on Tuesday, June 16th. They are an unusual article and any person wishing to inspect his stock should not miss the opportunity.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Patriotic League will be held at the home of Mrs. Fleck, on Thursday, June 18th, at 7:30 p.m. A good audience is required for the important business will come before the meeting.

—One more from Buffalo comes in last. "I told him that the Norval road was the worst — road he ever saw on, and wanted to know why is — our Township Council didn't repair it. We couldn't tell him because we know no just reason why it wasn't repaired long ago."

—You get quality and promptness in watch repairing when you have Foster do it. Leave it with L. V. Hourigan local agent.

Personal

Mrs. Shockey, of Chillicothe, Hamlin, Ohio.
Mrs. H. Holmes is visiting friends in Ontario.
Mrs. H. W. Scanlon, of Port Elgin, is visiting in town.
Mr. Fred Nichols, of Durban, is visiting friends in town.
Mrs. Estelle, Mrs. Gault and daughter, of Montezuma, are visiting in town.
Miss W. J. and Mrs. Pardee, of Toronto, spent a few days in town during the week.

Mr. Granville Clark and two little daughters, of Toronto, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Williams and children, of Toronto, visited as W. H. Williams' last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boomer and baby, Beatrix, spent the week-end with Palmerston friends.

Mr. J. H. Adams, of Hanover, visited with his daughter, Mrs. Grandy, last week.

Rev. Mr. Routhouse, of Southampton, was in town yesterday and made the "Harold" a pleasant call.

Rev. T. Gandy, of Newmarket, visited his son C. W. and A. M. Grandy at their houses here last week.

Mrs. G. M. Baldwin of Toronto, wife of Mr. Baldwin of the Glass Garden Builders, spent Monday in town.

Mr. W. A. Miller was called to Toronto to-day owing to the death of his brother, Mr. W. J. Miller, of the Bennett, Wright Co., in Canada.

The remains of the late Charles Webster, of Toronto, of Balmoral, were interred in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. K. G. Lindsay who is undergoing treatment at Grange Hospital is progressing favorably. He had a chest cold, and was having trouble with his heart.

He is the son of the late David Armstrong who died about seventeen years ago.

Rev. Arthur McCollum, an old George town boy, has one of those ordained on Sunday morning last by the Bishop of Toronto. In the evening Mr. McCollum presided at St. Stephen's Church, of which Rev. T. G. Wallace is the rector. Mr. Wallace at one time had charge of George's Church here. Mr. McCollum's sermon was most enjoyed; he is undoubtedly a young man of good promise.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset, who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just

finished his second year in his college course, his special study being engineering.

Now the name of this tale is that of a "survivor" of the "One" that is to be given to the members of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. John G. Arrowsmith of Dorset,

who was born in Georgetown twenty years ago, has enlisted for engineering services in France and gone into camp near Dorset this week. He had just