WONDER ISLAND OF HISTORY.

The Story of Sicily is a Compendium of Medieval Romance. Sicily's history is as vivid and picturesque, as fanciful and creative and dramatic, as any of the legends of all the world.

CURIOUS FRENCH DUEL.

When Man and Wife Tried to Settle a Dispute With Swords. Charles Courjean, Marquis d'Amoult, a French poet and musician of the seventeenth century, related to one of his "Adventures" that his father and mother were one day engaged in a discussion upon questions of law when a dispute arose between them with regard to the precise significance and meaning of a provision in Justinian's code with respect to the rights of brothers.

As Billed as Lete.

As the German army approached Brussels in August, 1914, it was reported that the invaders might shell the city. In a high state of alarm the Chinese minister went to our minister, Grand Whitlock, to see what Whitlock meant to do in the event of bombardment.

Castle Garden.

Castle Garden, which was built by the United States in 1807 from the plans of Lieutenant Colonel Jonathan Williams, C. E., and was called Fort Clinton, in 1824 it was called Fort City. In 1824 it became a place of amusement and about 1825 got its present name. In 1825 there were many theatrical companies played there; in 1826 Jenny Lind came there; in 1828 it was closed as a place of amusement, and the company of emigration took it as an industrial depot; in 1830 it suffered from fire, and on July 1, 1876, it was burned to the ground. It was rebuilt at once. In 1882 the depot was moved to Little Island, and Castle Garden reserved to the city, which in 1888 opened an aquarium there.

Our First Battleship.

The first American battleship, was the old Texas of Spanish-American war fame. She was authorized by congress in 1880 and was completed six years later. The original battleship was little over 300 feet long and had a displacement of 13,000 tons. The present day Texas is 354 feet long and has a tonnage of 27,000 tons. The old Texas is today used as a target for navy practice—Michigan.

Late Repentance.

"You know you are not taking anything that doesn't agree with you," admonished the physician. "Oh, yes, sir. My wife has just been taking."—Huffington American.

Plenty of Practice.

"Have you any special qualifications for this job you are asking for in our establishment as a horse-walker?" "Oh, yes, sir. My wife has just been taking."—Huffington American.

PESTS THAT LIVE ON PESTS.

They Scorpion-like Crabbe a Deadly Pest to Houseflies. To the naturalist or to any one conversant with insects, it is a long time ago that it was discovered that the fact is apparent that the problems of existence are proportionately the same in every form of organized life.

TRACING A CRIMINAL.

The Most Expert Will Leave Some Mark That Betrays Him. Successful criminals nearly always specialize in their work, and it is owing to this fact that detective in many cases are able to track them down.

The Moral of the Story.

Professor John Spencer Bassett, author of "Life of Andrew Jackson," in one of his lectures at Smith College, repeated a well known story in regard to Stephen A. Douglas, closing with a novel which aroused peculiar interest.

History of the Word "Telegram."

In the reminiscences of Frederick Seaward, son of William H. Seaward, he tells of the day in the office of the Albany Evening Journal, edited by Arthur Wood, that the word "telegram" was first used in that paper.

His Surprise.

"Learn to cook, cutting, and I'll give you a surprise," said a lightward to his wife. "I've been a six months' cooking course and then brought home her diploma proudly. She could now cook like an angel."

A Rugged American.

"A belted earl once proposed to this lady he headed lady." "Pussy that! I presume her family was pleased?" "Her mother was delighted, but her father expressed a savage wish to halt the earl himself."—Huffington American.

No Allowance.

"Some day you'll be rich enough to take from business." "Give up my nice pleasant office and my home?" rejoined Mr. Growcher. "I should say not!"—Washington Star.

Where He Rules.

"Are you the boss of the house?" "I'm the driving when the misus and I'm on in the auto."—Detroit Free Press.
