Interesting letter from Sgt. John Ballantyne

Dear Joe—I have been reading the Herald and find it is a very interesting paper. I am pleased to say that the boys are all well and enjoying life. We are all expected to be over in France before this, but we are all well and enjoying life.

HELP VICTORY LOAN

BY PAYING YOUR BILLS

There are thousands of retail merchants throughout Canada, especially in the smaller towns and villages, who would gladly subscribe, or subscribe more, for Victory Bonds. If it was not for the amount of money they are carrying on their books and the uncertainty as to when much of it will be paid, the farmers who deal with these local merchants are not the least blameable in this respect.

If everyone during the last week of the campaign would make an effort to pay his bill to the local merchant, the latter would be glad to increase his Victory Loan subscription. Thousands of farmers have received substantial sums of money for their orders and are able to pay their bills. If you are one of them, see that you pay up during the last week in November and thus give your merchant the opportunity he no doubt desires to subscribe for all the Victory Bonds that he possibly can, and do not forget to subscribe yourself to the utmost of your power.

Farmers' demands are not so great as they were in the past. The Victory Bond is a very profitable investment for the farmer, the retailer and all other classes of Canadian's population be assured.
