TO YOUTH AFTER PAIN.

What if this year has given Grief that some year must bring What if it hurt your joyous youth, Crippled your laughter's wing? You always knew it was coming.

Coming to all, to you. They always said their was suffering-Now it is borne, come through.

Even if you have blundered, Even if you have sinned, Still is the steadfast arch of the sky And the healing veil of the

AFTER SICKNESS THEY GAVE HFD VINA

Her Strength

New Castle, Ind.—"The measles left me run down, no appetite, could not rest at night, and I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs, so I was unable to keep about my housework. My doctor advised me to take Vinol, and six bottles restored my health so I do all my housework, including washing. Vinol is the best medicine I ever used."—Alice Record, 437 So. 11th St., New Castle, Ind.

We guarantee this wonderful cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, for all weak, run-down, nervous conditions.

THE SAD STORY OF THE STRUGGLE

is frequently revealed in these war times even in this well-to-do Province. Hard enough to be poor—still worse to be sick and poor.

The lot of the consumptive is a specially trying one. Only recently a family was discovered living in two small rooms over a store. At one time they had occupied a comfortable home that the father took sick and had to give up work. With the savings all sone, they were forced to sell the furniture to buy food. When the man was found to be a consumptive, this was the opportunity of the Muskoka Free Hospital to bring relief so that not only would the stricken husband have a winning chance for life, but more desirable still, the wife and children should be removed from danger of contracting the disease. Under skilling uidance the home was cleaned up and the family temporarily provided for. It is now reported that the patient is doing well, with every chance of recovery.

The lot of the consumptive is a specially tilled that 1,120 were imprisoned for debt under $50, that of these 720 owed less than $25 and that every one of them would have starved to death but for the assistance of the Humane society.

One man remained, it was noted, in the New York juli for three years, who was only indebted to the extent of $50, before death ended his misery and during the entire time was fed by the Humane society. Another unfortunate had been imprisoned as years and was supported by charity. In the face of such striking evidence the legislature of New York state relented and in 1817 forbade the imprisonment of debtors for sums less than $25. This led the way, and state after state followed.

This is the great work carried on by the Muskoka Free Hospital which is now appealing for help. Contributions may be sent to W. J. Gage, Chairman, 84 Spadina Avenue, Toronto, or Geo. A. Reid, Secretary-Treasurer, 223 College St., Toronto.

When imprisonment For Debt Was the Law of the Land

TORTURE FOR ITS VICTIMS.

Poor Wretches Unable to Pay the Trifie They Owed Were Flung Into Prison to Starve to Death Unless Rescued by Charity or Their Creditors.

In the early part of the last century there was started an earnest effort to entirely abolish or, at least to regulate the eld colony law of huntleanment for debt. The movers in this abolish. mont felt that no class of the commanity deserved consideration more. It had been the luhuman rule that for the smallest debt possible to contract, though it were but a cent in

Yalue, the body of the debtor, whether man or woman, would be selzed by the creditor and cast into infl. Ench year poor wretches had been dragged to prison by themsalids on what were truly called splite actions. Once belind the prison walls they were consigned to a face harder fush that which awaited worse criminals. Mustlesers and thieves: forgers and counterfeiters, sent ertiffigils of all kinds, were fed, clothed and rated for at the expense of the state, that for the unbappy man whose only offense was his inability to pay a trifling sum of a few cents no such provision was made. The food lie-ate, the shreds that covered him, the medicine be tooknay, the very rags he wrapped about his sores-were, provided, if provided at all, by his friends, by the public of by some humane society.

The room in which he was confined with scores of other offenders was ut-And She Soon Got Back terly without furniture of any sort. In it were neither beds, nor tables, nor chairs, nor so much as a bench or stool. He sat on the floor, ate off the floor and at night lay to sleep on it like a dog, and this misery be endured until he died or his debt was paid or his creditor released him.

Against this at length humanity revolted, and in 1704 a change for the better was ordered. It was stipulated that the inspector should provide fuel and blankets for such debtors as, by reason of their dire property, could not get them and should make an allowance of 7 cents a day for food and charge this against the creditors. If L. V. HOURIGAN, Druggist, George any creditor refused to pay after ten town. Also at the best druggist in all days' notice his debtor was to be discharged.

For twenty-two years the community seemed to have thought that this mild concession was all that humanity required, for no further change was made until 1814. Then was passed the "bread act," under which each pris-oner whose debt did not exceed $15 was entitled to a discharge after an imprisonment of thirty days.

From documents presented to the senate of New York in 1817 it appears that the keeper of the debtors' jall in New York city certified that during 1816 1,984 debtors were confined and that upward of 000 were always in the
