OF THE NEED for all exportable Canadian food products no one should longer be in doubt. The first of a series of fortnightly cablegrams from France to the Food Controller states with a plainness that would be pitiful if it were not so noble, how badly off the French civilians are. "The supply of breadstuffs is causing grave anxiety. Imports are very Dear Mother short. Our bread car machinery has been completed but present lack of cereals will not permit of its application" it says. We are quarantined at present and as What does that mean? Simply that yet we don't know whether the period of France is so short of bread that it cannot rick even a re-adjustment of what must be literally a hand-to-mouth system, lest some should starve. Yet France lights on should starve. Yet France lights on ally lighting the brayest light of all the ages should be enough to make one determine that as far as in him lies be will aid such a noble race.
