

The Kid Has Gone To The Colors
(W. M. Herschel, in the Indianapolis News)
The Kid has gone to the colors
And we don't know what to say;
The Kid we have loved and cuddled
Stepped out for the flag to-day.
We thought him a child, a baby,
With never a care at all,
But his country called him man-size
And the Kid has heard the call
He passed to watch the recruiting
Where fired by the life and drum,
He bowed his head to Old Glory,
And thought of his father's name,
"Come!"
The Kid, not being a slacker,
Blood forth with patriotic joy
To add his name to the roster—
And God, we're proud of the boy!
The Kid has gone to the colors,
It seems but a little while,
Since he did a soldier's duty
In a truly manly style.
But now, he's a man, a soldier,
And he leads his listening ear,
In his heart is a heart all loyal,
Unconquered by the curse of fear.
He did, when he told him stammered,
His mother—and bless her—
"Yes, blessed with a mother's name,
She went with a mother's side."
But he whose shoulders straightened
Was Granddad—for methinks ran
To years when he, too, a youngster,
Was changed by the flag to a man!

His Patient
Bedford, Ohio—"I was in a pitiful condition, nervous and run down so I could not do my housework. I had doctor for years and tried everything under the sun. A friend told me about Vinol. I took it, and today I am as well and strong as any woman could wish to be. My doctor told me that saved me."—Mrs. Frank A. Horkey, Ash St., Bedford, Ohio.
