Glenwilliams

An excellent program was rendered in our school by the pupils on Empire Day, May 28th. The weather was glorious and the school room was tastefully decorated with flags and bunting. The children acquitted themselves admirably in all their selections. Councillor John Bingham occupied the chair and a number of visitors were present.

The remains of the late James C. Norton, one of our best known and widely respected young men who passed away last Friday, were interred in the cemetery here on Sunday afternoon. There was a large attendance and many beautiful floral tributes. The service at the Church was conducted by Rev Mr Burt. The Oddfellows attended in a body and took part in the service.

In the advertising columns today there appears the official announcement of the Military Service Act, giving full information to all who are required to report, that is those who have reached the age of 19, being unmarried or a widower. Heavy penalties are attached for failure to comply with the regulations, and the matter should be attended to at once.

Mystic Link Rebekah Lodge No 102 visited Verdun Rebekah Lodge No 184 last Tuesday evening and conferred the Degree to ten candidates in a most excellent manner. The work was perfect and everyone present could not help being benefitted by the noble work of Oddfellowship as exemplified on this and other occasions. Mystic Link chartered a special car on the Toronto Suburban Railway and returned at 12.45 for their homes. Twelve members of Evening Star Rebekah Lodge No 79 Milton came up in autos and everyone had a most enjoyable time. The number present was 160, 69 of whom came up with Mystic Link. War time refreshments were served.
