OUT IN THE FIELDS
The little cares that fretted me,
I lost them yesterday
Among the fields above the sea,
Among the winds at play,
Among the jowling of the herds,
The rustling of the trees,
Among the singing of the birds,
The humming of the bees,
The foolish fears of what may happen,
I cast them all away
Among the clover-scented grass
Among the new mown hay,
Among the husking of the corn,
Where drowsy poppies nod,
Where ill thoughts die and good
are born,
Out in the fields with God.
—Elizabeth Barrett Browning—

New Regulations In Force
The critical condition of food supplies for the Allies during the next few months has led the Canada Food Board to pass additional orders affecting wheat and flour. It has been made illegal for farmers, or anyone else, to use any millable wheat for feed for any kind of animals. Consumers are prohibited from accumulating stocks of flour beyond their actual current needs and must return to dealers any excess they may have been hoarding, and dealers must report excess stocks which will be returned to the millers or disposed of as the Canada Food Board directs.

For The Blind
Arrangements have been made at the Georgetown Public Library for the supply to any and all of the Blind who read either the English Braille or New York Point as taught in Canada. All such service to be free, and consisting of poems, stories, music, the Gospels, Psalms, or other books of the Holy Bible. The Magazine published by the Dominion Pictorial Press of Toronto as well as the Gospels and Psalms are to be retained by the Blind as their property. Books and Stories will be loaned the same as other books of the Library. Our readers will please apply for such of these publications for the Blind of their acquaintance.
