Victoria day passed away very quietly here. A few of the boys went fishing in the Credit.

Mrs S. Harvey and children, of Toronto, were the guests of Mr and Mrs A. Spear and other friends last week.

Mr and Mrs Wick and little daughter Helen, of Kitchener, spent the holiday and week-end at Mr J. Cook's.

Mr and Mrs Benham of Toronto, were the guests of friends here over the holiday.

Mrs W. Shortill returned home Thursday evening after spending a few days in Toronto.

Mr and Mrs Deagle of Orangeville, were callers at Mr Ira Roszel's on Sunday.

Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved friends of the late Wm. Shortill, in their sad bereavement, Mr Shortill, whose home was in Markdale, went to Hamilton where he underwent an operation for stomach trouble but did not recover. The funeral on Monday afternoon was largely attended when the remains were interred in the Cemetery here.

Mr and Mrs J. Deagle of Orangeville, accompanied by Misses Jean and Wilda Roszel, motored to Acton and visited Engineer G. King, of Exhibition Camp, Toronto, who was home at Acton for the week-end.

TIME TO PRODUCE!

Garden Time is Here

Get Busy

Let every true citizen stand by his Country in her time of greatest need. More Production—that's the word—More Production. There's a spade for every patriot and a hoe, a rake, or any kind of garden tool that's needed in the game of more production at Anthony's Hardware Store.

Perhaps you cannot go and fight, but don't you want to be one of those who will be able to say: "We helped to win the War." We carry every kind of garden tool in stock. The prices are right.
