THESE ARE WAR TIMES. Yes, of that there can be no doubt when we see grief-stricken parents parting from their boys as they leave for the war, whilst still others, with hearts surcharged by relief and pride, welcome their boys as they return home from the war—some wounded and disabled, yet able to get about and, at all events, alive. But do we find a nation on its knees because these are war times? We do not—far from it. Rather do we find a nation having a jolly good time to itself most of the time, and so full of its enjoyment that Sunday is grabbed as another day on which to fill in the excitement and fun. Sometimes such things make one seriously consider if we as a nation are really ripe for the victory that will come our way; if for no other reason than because Hunism is unthinkable. But certainly we are far from appearing a nation at war. Now some one will say I am grouchy. Well, perhaps I am a little. I am no angel myself in regard to the observance of the Sabbath, but I often go to bed wondering: "Are we worthy, are we ready for victory and the winning of the war."

Obituary

ISABEL M. LITTLE
One of Esqueving's most popular young ladies in the person of Miss Isabel Little passed away at her home on the 7th line on Monday last. Although deceased had been in poor health for some time, her death was a shock to the community. Miss Little was a young lady of sterling character, honored and beloved by all who knew her and her early demise has caused deep sorrow among her many friends.

The remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery this afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. R. F. Cameron.

JOHN A. MCCOLL

The funeral of John A. McColl son of Mr. and Mrs. D. McColl of Kootenai, was held this morning from the Presbyterian Church with Rev. Grafton and Rev. Livingston reading the last and rites before the body was taken to its final resting place in Lakeview Cemetery.

At the time of his death, last Friday, the young man was visiting at the home of his brother in Spokane where he contracted pneumonia which, followed by a relapse, caused his untimely end. Deceased was in his 24th year and graduated from the Sandpoint High School, later attending a dental college at Buffalo, N. Y. It was at this place where his health began to fail him and he decided to come west again in hopes of betterment. Besides a mother and father, the young man leaves to mourn his death three brothers: H. R. McColl of Spokane, Wis., Frazier McColl, of Racine, Wis., and Lieutenant James M. McColl now stationed at Camp Lewis, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Wallis of Tonawanda, N. Y. The many beautiful floral tributes which surrounded the casket bore silent testimony as to the respect in which the young man was held by his large circle of friends, both in Kootenai and Sandpoint.—Idaho News.

Died

LITTLE—In Esqueving, on Monday June 3rd, 1918, Isabel Marjorie, youngest daughter on the late David Little.

Friends Said Good-Bye

Address and Presentation to Mr and Mrs F. J. Barber

On Friday evening last, citizens to the number of about 50, ladies and gentlemen, met at the Public Library and proceeded to the home of Mr and Mrs F. J. Barber. The object of the gathering was to say good-bye and to present Mr and Mrs Barber, who leave for their new home in Toronto, this week, with a small token expressing the esteem in which they are held as citizens of our town.

Major Grant occupied the chair and after appropriate preliminary remarks called upon Mr Ralph Ross who read the address which follows; and Dr H. G. Reid on behalf of the gathering presented Mr Barber with a handsome gold wrist watch, suitably inscribed. Mrs Barber was presented by Mrs H. P. Lawson with a beautiful basket of roses. The address was as follows:—
To Mr F. J. Barber:

Dear Mr. Barber—We learned with deep regret of your intention to leave the town which has been your life long home.

We shall certainly miss you. You have been a good citizen and a public-spirited man. You have given a great deal of time to the Public Library and we recognize that its present efficiency is largely due to you. We are deeply grateful for your work on its behalf. You had an interest in the welfare of the young people of Georgetown, and took an active part in providing for them a rink where they could have healthful recreation. This was one of the pressing needs of the town and we will not forget your zeal in regard to it. These among others are evidences of the active part you played in promoting the best interests of Georgetown.

We are indeed sorry that we shall no longer have you and your family with us. You have been genial and companionable people and we shall feel your loss in many ways. We wish for you all, every sort of good and happiness and hope that you will not leave too long an interval between your visits to the old spot.

On behalf of the citizens of Georgetown, C. B. Dayfoot, L. Grant, J. A. Willoughby, C. W. Grandy, G. C. MacKay, C. W. Papat Mr Barber replied on behalf of his family and himself, assuring all that their kind words and handsome gifts were appreciated and that they would cherish them in kind remembrances of the many friends left behind in the old home town.

Short speeches followed by Messrs J. J. Allen, C. B. Dayfoot, J. A. Willoughby, R. C. McCullough, Dr Watson and J. M. Moore, after which refreshments were served by the ladies. At the request of those present Mr Barber sang a solo which was greatly appreciated, as was also a reading by Mrs (Major) G. O. Brown.

While deeply regretting the removal of such good and worthy citizens from our town, all join heartily in wishing Mr and Mrs Barber and family health and happiness in their new home in Rosedale.

Oddfellows

Attend Church

The Oddfellows were well represented at their annual church parade on Sunday evening, when they had the pleasure of listening to an able address by Rev. Dr Cline, in the Baptist Church. There were about 70 members of Orion Lodge, No. 109, I.O.O.F., and visiting brethren from Brampton, Milton and Acton present.

Rev. Dr Cline, pastor of the church, was the speaker of the occasion and chose as his text the 2nd verse of the 8th chapter of Galatians, viz "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." The sermon was a strong appeal to all to forget self and help those who are weaker and less fortunate than themselves by bearing part of their burden as commanded by Christ. Put into practise the example of the good Samaritan and show by practical benevolence that true Christian virtue so needful to the human race. He commended the Order for their noble work in the past and expressed the hope that their achievements of the future might even be greater than anticipated.

A solo by Mr F. J. Barber was much appreciated by the congregation.

On returning to the Lodge rooms a hearty vote of thanks was unanimously passed by the members to Rev. Dr Cline for his able and inspiring sermon.

Address and Presentation

On Thursday evening May 28rd the friends and neighbours met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Ruddell to bid Mr. Neilson Stark farewell on his departure to don the khaki. The former part of the evening was spent in games and music, after which Mr. Wm. Fisher called the meeting to order, with a short intimation of the purpose and called upon Mr. Leslie Fisher to read the following address:

To Mr. Neilson Stark:
Having learned of your leaving us to join the colours, we your friends and neighbours have met here to spend the evening with you. We wish to express our feeling of gratitude for your many acts of kindness and to show you that our thoughts and sympathies are with you and all the brave boys who have gone to serve, King and Country. It is well understood how badly we need you, a true through-going cheerful fellow of the right sort, but our country is calling for just those boys and we must respond for the winning of this great war, for it is the greatest issue at stake today. So Neilson we are proud in the highest sense of the word to know we have such as you to send. Now we beg you Neilson to accept this watch as a slight token of our friendship. May God bless you and hasten the day when if it is his will we welcome you home again. Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbours.

Frank Ruddell
Wilfred McDonald
Leslie Fisher

The watch was presented by Miss Alice Williamson. After which Mr. Stark made a suitable reply followed by short speeches by several present. Then a dainty war time lunch was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in tripping the light fantastic toe to the accompaniment of the violin played by Mr D. J. McColl, till the wee small hours in the morning. — com.
