A. B. WILSON
MAIN STREET, Next McGibbon Hotel

THE CAR
He courted her for many a month
With caramels and cream,
And violets and other things,
In Love's expensive dream,
And still the maid was cold and shy,
But when his hopes grew dim,
He got a big red auto, and
Behold! she married him.
He failed in business and he sold
The costly car, of course,
His wife's affections vanished and
She got a quick divorce,
And leaving him to meditate
On his unlucky star,
She married in a week or less
The man who bought the car.

All Must Register

THE REGISTRATION of every person in Canada over 16 years of age is to take place on June 22nd, and it is well that all concerned should realize their responsibility in this regard. Persons over 16 who fail to register will be subject to a fine of $10 per day or a term of imprisonment at the discretion of the court, or both; so that, for their own protection, it is necessary that all concerned govern themselves according to the regulations with regard to registration. All residents of Canada, whether British subjects or not, must register, but the regulations do not apply to those on active service with His Majesty's forces. Upon registration a receipt will be provided bearing the signature of the deputy registrar and the registrant and every person should be particular about getting this receipt and keeping it in a safe place.

It is desirable that all persons should register where they live and at the registration booth serving their districts, but any person may register at any booth, and this holds good for those who happen to be away from home on June 22nd. In the case of those usually residing in Canada who are out of the country on registration day it is necessary that they register at a post office immediately on their return. Boys arriving at the age of 16 years after June 22nd must also register at the post office within 80 days after their birthday.

Two possible war measures that will be simplified as a result of the national registration will be the adoption of a system of rationing and the distribution of labor to the best advantage. Events alone can decide to what extent the information gained on registration day will be utilized by the Government, but the duty of every person on June 22nd is clear—Register.

A concert will be held in the Methodist Sunday School room, Tuesday, June 25th, under the auspices of the Mission Band. Admission 10 cents. 2t
