In Memoriam

BURTENSHAW In loving memory of Catharine Burtenshaw, who departed this life July 17th, 1917.
A happy home we once enjoyed
How sweet the memories still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
HUSBAND AND FAMILY

The Georgetown Herald
Wednesday, July 17th, 1918.

THE HIGH AND FANCY shoe is doomed. The fair sex, for the remainder of the war, will have to get along with plain, unadorned foot-wear. The Canada War Trade Board has had the matter under consideration and proposes to make a number of regulations. These have been submitted to the boot and shoe manufacturers. It is understood that they have no objections and the new orders regulating Canada foot-wear will be issued at once. They will be very similar to regulations which have been made in the United States. The proposals of the War Trade Board are that women's shoes shall not be higher than eight inches. Now ultra-fashionable shoes are twelve inches or more high. It is also proposed to make only four colors. There will be white and black shoes and two shades of tan, light and dark. It is also proposed to limit the styles to as few varieties as possible.

FOLLOWING THE action of the Director-General of the United States Railroad Administration, ordering United States carriers to increase transcontinental westbound commodity rates from the Eastern States to coast points, the Dominion Railroad Board has authorized a similar increase in Canadian rates. The new rates in the United States came into effect June 25. The new Canadian rates will become effective August 1. The Railway Board considered action necessary because of the competitive character of the traffic, and Canadian railways are authorized to increase commodity rates from Eastern Canada so as to place them on at least an equality with the rates now in effect from the neighboring States. Some objections to the new rates is being taken by Western Boards of Trade and a special session of the board may be called to consider the protests.

WE ARE EVER fond of digging into the history of the past, and nothing interests us more than to read that 25 or 30 years ago eggs were sold at 10c a dozen, butter at 12 1-2c and 15c a lb. Well what about it, wages then were only a dollar and a dollar and a quarter a day. Which would you rather have – the day of cheap food and low wages, or the high wages and dear food? You know very well what the answer is. Fifty years ago the masses were just as prone to complain of hard times as they are to-day. If the price of food stuffs was low fifty years ago the income of the consumer was in proportion and the producer found his market limited. The world has moved in the last half century and it is hard to believe that there has been no progress in the living conditions of the people. As a matter of fact we know there has been advance all along. Take yourself, for instance Mr. Reader, are you living in the same small house you did 40 years ago, or 30, and did you ever think of eating strawberries, then, at 25 and 30 cents a box, or having a bathroom in the house, a furnace instead of a stove, etc. On your reply to these must depend the answer to a lot of grumbling that is so often heard nowadays.

The citizens of Glenwilliams very kindly subscribed the sum of fifty dollars for another of their young heroes who has recently returned from overseas, but unfortunately was wounded severely and is now in the Davisville Hospital, Toronto. In the following letter he tenders his thanks to the people.

To the people of Glenwilliams:
My best thanks to the citizens of my home town for their kind remembrance. I am very thankful to them for the money I received and hope to be able sometime to thank them personally.

I enlisted in Dec. 1916 in the 126th Batt, went overseas Aug. 1916, sent to France Nov. 1, 1916, seen active service with the 18th Batt and was wounded Aug. 1, 1917, in a bombing raid near Lens, by gunshot wound in the left thigh. Have been ten months in hospitals in France and England, prior to being sent to Canada. I arrived here June 16th, 1915.

Again thanking the citizens for their kindness, I remain
Yours sincerely
Pte Wesley Brennan

The committee has now on hand $20.25, the balance of the proceeds of entertainment held May 23rd and which was handed over by Messrs J. Hill and G. Allen, July 9, towards the return of the next veteran.—

Killed by a Bull

Mr. George F. Michie of Esquesing Found trampled to Death in His Stable

While his family were at church on Sunday morning last, Mr. George Michie lot 10, con 1, Esquesing was attacked and killed in his stable by an enraged bull. It is not just known how the fatality occurred but when the deceased's son went to the stable on his return from church, he found the trampled body of his dead father at the entrance to the alleyway in the stable and the bull running loose. The animal was afterwards shot. The late Mr. Michie was one of Esquesing's oldest and most highly respected residents and the family have the sincere sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their sad bereavement. The funeral took place from his late residence on Wednesday when the remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

Obituary

CAPT. JOHN JOHNSTON.

The township has lost an outstanding figure by the death of Capt. Johnston. Born in Maddy York (now Toronto) in 1833, he lost his mother two years later when the cholera epidemic visited this country, then he moved to Cookstown where he resided with his grandfather till early manhood. In 1851 he came to Stewarttown which at that time was the most thriving village in the township where some years later he married Abigail Thompson daughter of William Thompson Esq, a member of one of the earliest Esquesing families. At the time of the Fenian Affair in 1866 the Stewarttown Volunteer Company was raised and Capt. Johnston became the first Reeve. His son, or this is all I ever thing else he undertook soon fought him to the front as a rebel with such, as the numerous medals and other trophies in his home testify, among others being the Dutch Boer Jubilee Medal for the part he took in the war. When the Fenians invaded the country in 1866, Stewarttown Company was among the first to be ordered out and here Johnston's splendid physique and soldierly bearing were commented on by those who "lined them good bye." The company was stationed at St. Catherines and while there Capt. Johnston was given command of the party who took the Fenian prisoners from St. Catherines to Toronto Gaol per Gunboat "Rosene". After the 20th Battalion was formed, Capt. Johnston usually acted as Musketry Instructor at the Niagara camp. On his retirement from the command of No 2 Co he was presented with a handsome sword by his men. About 1886 he became a member of the York Pioneer Society on the recommendation of the late James Barber. Capt. Johnston was in the lumbering business for forty years. His wife predeceased him about 26 years ago, four children W. D. Johnston of Georgetown, Mrs. J. R. Thompson and Mrs. T. M. Dobbie of Esquesing and Mrs. Colin Mitchell survive him. In religion he was a life long Methodist, in politics a strong Conservative but the chief plank in his politics was British connexion. He was a consistent temperence man, not a bigot, a man of high ideals and his fine appearance and pleasing personality made him many friends. He wore the white flower of a blameless life and the presence of so many old settlers at his funeral shows the esteem in which he was held in the community. The pall-bearers were six nephews of the deceased.
