Liquor All Disposed Of
The carload of confiscated liquor recently seized at Guelph by Lt. George O'Brien, has been shipped to the four winds in Ontario, and a load of anxiety has been lifted from Mr. O'Brien's shoulders as a result. Acting on instructions from the license Department in Toronto, received on Saturday, the inspector has dispatched the liquor to hospitals and asylums in the province from Penetanguishene to Brookville. The Guelph hospitals received their share, and no less than 10 Toronto hospitals got in on the "milk run." Like the fount of old, when all had been supplied, it was found that there were still 15 barrels over. These were shipped to the department in Toronto and will be sold to the licensed vendors.

—To miss one performance of Chautauque will require a better excuse than the price of admission.

Bitten by Supposed Mad Dog
To-day Wm. Hustler, farmer on the sixth line, near Hornby, was bitten on the chin by a dog that is supposed to be mad. Mr. Hustler is crossing a wheat field in order to inspect his clover crop and had reached the fence when a strange dog about the size of a collie sprang at him and before he could realize it had bitten him two or three times on the chin. In the excitement Mr. Hustler fell on his back. The dog immediately after the assault made off and has not been heard of. Mr. Hustler came to Brampton to get medical attention and we understand was to leave this afternoon for the city to take the Pasteur treatment.—Brampton Banner Aug. 1st.

Pugh—Sanny
The marriage of Miss Edythe Olive Sanny, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton M. Sudy of Dunnville, to Mr. William Paul Pugh, of Georgetown, took place at the bride's home on Wednesday afternoon Aug. 7th, 1918, at four o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Thompson, rector of Holy Trinity Church, Wolland, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends, about fifty guests being present. The bride who was given away by her father, was dressed in white crepe and satin, with seed pearl trimming and bridal veil. She was attended by Miss Lulu Wilson, who wore white crepe with an over-blowse of pink chiffon and hat to match. Both carried roses. The groomsmen was Mr. W. S. Grosch of Millerton. The wedding march was played by Miss Lottie Wilson. After congratulations had been extended a luncheon was served, and the happy couple took the evening train for a honeymoon trip, after which they will branch off at Georgetown Aug. 20th. The bride travelled in a tailored suit of Oxford grey cloth with a navy hat.

The bride has followed the nursing profession, and the groom is an ox man. On the night of the local branch of the Bank of Hamilton, being transferred recently to Georgetown with a promotion to the post of accountant. The groom's gift to the bride was a cameo brooch, to the bride a ring. On the night of a croquet of parties, and to the groomsmen a diamond scarf pin. Both the contracting parties are very popular, and The Chronicle joins their large circle of friends in heartfelt congratulations.—The Dunnville Chronicle.
