In Memoriam

KING—In loving memory of my dear son, Mr. Percy King, who died of wounds on September 1st, 1918, during his service in France. He was a good boy and a true Canadian. I will always think of him and him, but that little know the sorrow.

THOMAS—In loving memory of my son, Thomas, who died in France on Sept. 1st, 1918.

Days of sadness still come to us. Hidden tears oft times do flow; For memory keeps us dear one near us.

Altho he died one year ago.

Mother.

KENNEDY—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mary Kennedy, who died Sept. 17th, 1917.

The moon and stars Are shining on a lone and silent grave, But could not save.

Her weary hours and days of pain, Her troubled nights have passed, Her ever patient form in frame Has found sweet rest at last.

Husband and Daughter.

GILMAN—In loving memory of our dear mother, Laura Gilman, who departed this life September 13th, 1917.

Thessalonians 4th Ch., 13th V.

At rest from all the toil, the tears and strife, The doubts and fears of this our mortal life.

In that Fair Haven, of all calm and peace.

Till Jesus comes again, our mother sleeps.

With parting life Thy Will be done;

We pray, O Lord, for us.

Not for us all, for we all know He loves us all, for all He knows best.

She sleeps in Him, a calm and peaceful rest.

A quiet while and all the parting pain Shall be forgot in meeting once again,

A meeting which in joyfulness.

Shall last for all our God's Eternity.

Then let us now look back upon the years.

Where her poor mortal body we have laid,

But look to His and that sure promise.

Do not fear.

When He shall wipe all tears of grief away,

When He shall call the sleepers from their beds,

To joy and gladness that shall never cease,

And in that promise, know

She is not dead,

But for a little while.

Our mother sleeps.

Husband and Children.

STEPS HAVE been taken by the Government to secure wider application of the anti-loafing law. The Chief Commissioner of the Dominion Police is charged with the enforcement of the law in all localities where, in his opinion, the provisions of the law have not been effectively and uniformly enforced, and is empowered to appoint such special officers as he may consider necessary. Many local authorities throughout the Dominion, it is pointed out, have failed to enforce the anti-loafing law effectively.

Pte. W. GARFIELD MASON

Killed while fighting for King and Country in France.

France, Aug. 20, 1918.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Mason:

To write to you under such circumstances is not a very nice job.

Long before this I suppose you have been notified of Garfield's death.

He was killed in action

during the big offensive where so many of our oldest and best friends were killed.

My dear friends, I can only offer you my sympathy.

His death was very sudden and he died without pain.

He is buried with other comrades, in neat new little cemetery, each man having a separate grave, and each having a Christian burial. I hope this will be a little satisfaction for you to know. I was not able to get in time to write to you.

I am his friend, 916108 Sgt. I. F. Toms,

D. Coy., 2nd C.M.R. Canadians

France.

You were introduced to me before you left Toronto. Please write a short answer so I'll know when to receive this. I am writing to all relatives of any killed or wouned I know of. I don't know young

Mrs. Mason's address so I'll not be able to write to her. Garfield's pal,

Benny Brown was wounded, not seriously. I hope your family and friends won't take it too much to heart. One of the best he did doing is his best among his best friends.

I have tried my best to write a letter to you, my thoughts are all over, so if it's a poor attempt for give me and now I'll close. If you want any information at all, I'll do my best to get it for you. Hoping you bear this burden, without breaking down.

I am yours sincerely

I. F. Toms.
