Church News

METHODIST

We were all delighted with the response made on rally day for the S. School. The Programme was most appropriate and good. The offering large. It all lends inspiration for greater effort.

In the evening Rev. M. M. Bennett of Swift Current Saskatchewan, an, President of the Conference of that name gave a most inspiring missionary address pointing out that it was the Missionary church which survived all others. That Christ is the true centre of christianity and that sacrifice is the true standard for the Christian.

Services for Sunday next with subjects: Morning: Christianity for to-day. Evening: Tragic Mistakes.
