THE KAISER'S EPITAPH

Mr. W. A. Fraser, the well known Toronto author, submits the following as a suitable epitaph for the Kaiser:
Here lies the Kaiser, the Kaiser's fate his victims, foolish, selfish and vain. Thrice depicted in folly his poor life was rancor, hate, and bloody strife. Vain dreams of conquest swayed his mind. Filled with the lust of power, to honor blind. A curse to mankind was his reign; And now he's dead—'twas all in vain. Write large in Folly's hall his name. That all who come may read his shame; Read how he brought upon his people hate; Read how he wrecked their proud estate; Took from the plow the willing hand; Cast mourning o'er his native land. His evil fame shall always live, For never will the world forgive.
W. A. FRASER.

Wrong Impression

SOME THOUGHTLESS people have been imagining that should peace come soon necessity for the new Canadian Victory Loan would disappear. A moment of thought should dispel any such illusion. Sir Thomas White, manager of the loan, has met with this too optimistic individual in his travels, which has led him to wire to Toronto headquarters of the loan campaign in the following terms: "The Victory Loan will be required to its full extent even if peace should come within a few weeks or months as the nations will be on a war basis for a long time and it will take Canada a year or more to demobilize. Also credits will still have to be given to the Imperial Government." For a long time after the war ends, and because of it, Canada will continue to be a heavy borrower. We are a young nation, and while we have wonderful potential resources, this is our development time, and like all developing countries, we are chronically short of cash for development work. In the past we have borrowed from outside sources. The war not only put an end to that, but added vastly to our borrowing needs. To-day we must finance ourselves and in the Victory Loan campaign now in operation we shall have opportunity to show faith in the future of our country. Whether peace comes soon or late the full amount will be required and it is our patriotic privilege to subscribe it. Our failure will be Canada's failure. We have the making of the national future in our hands.

THE GREAT VICTORY campaign opened on Monday. Canadians are asked to lend the government of Canada $800,000,000, and as much more as they can, for the prosecution of the war. They are asked to lend the money for a term of five years or for a term of fifteen years, as they desire. During the term of the loan they will receive interest at the rate of five and one half per cent. per annum payable May 1 and Nov. 1. At the expiration of the term the money they have loaned will be returned to them upon surrender of the bonds.

MORE HEROES MAKE THE SUPREME SACRIFICE.
Pte. Michael Kules, a former Esquesing boy, is reported to have fallen in action in France on October 11th.
Word was received last week that Pte. Joseph Fryer, son of Thomas Fryer, Nassanaweya, had been killed in action in France.
The sad news reached Acton on Friday that Pte. Arthur Anderson, son of W. D. Anderson, Park Ave., had fallen in action in France on Tuesday, October 1st.
Major Brown, who was wounded at the battle of Amiens, has been awarded a military medal. Before quitting the Major was captured in the office of the Duke of Wellington. His father was of military rank and the Major was a volunteer of the South African War. He is of English parentage and came to Canada from India about ten years ago.

SGT. JAMES BLAIR
Another hero from our midst has made the supreme sacrifice in the person of the late Sgt. Jim Blair. He was born in Ballymena Co. Antrim, Ireland, 36 years and 9 months ago, coming to this country early in the year 1905, he made Georgetown his home. Soldiering was his hobby and he held an Imperial Sgt.'s certificate, was always anxious to join up but did not reach his ambition until the 164th Battalion was organized, when he was one of the first to sign up, doing so on February 19th, 1916.
The following letter received by his wife from Major G. O. Brown, whom he always respected, shows the esteem in which he was held by the 164th.
Dear Mrs. Blair:
Allow me to express my deepest sympathy in your terrible trouble. I knew only this morning that Jim had nobly given his life for our liberty. He has made the supreme sacrifice. No man could do more. I am sure he died as he lived like a man. The news affected me very deeply as I always had the greatest respect for your late husband both as a soldier and as a man. You can certainly be proud of his memory knowing that he gave his life fighting for mankind. You have had more than your share of trouble and I know you will bear this greatest loss of all like a true soldier's wife. I am
Respectfully yours,
G. O. Brown, Major.

His name is on the Honor Roll of the Baptist Church, to which he was an adherent, he also sung in the choir and male quartette. He leaves behind to mourn his loss, his wife in town; father, three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Coonan, Mrs. McPherson, Portoronto; Mrs. Smith, Glasgow, Scotland; and John, Toronto.

DRIVER H. TRACEY
Driver Tracey was the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Tracey, Glenwilliams, and enlisted in the artillery at Guelph in April 1918. He trained at Petawawa during the past summer and had volunteered to go to Siberia. He came home on last leave on Sept. 27th and died Oct. 2nd from blood poisoning. He was 20 years of age and besides his parents leaves four brothers. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

PTE. IVAN T. GREEN
Pte. Ivan T. Green, of Georgetown, Ont., died of pneumonia on October 21, 1918, in his 20th year, at Bonington Military Hospital, England. Before joining the 1st Canadian Tank Battalion he attended the Toronto University. He was the oldest son of Mr. A. G. Green, the principal of Georgetown Public School.
Pte. Green was a clever student and one of our most popular young men. He was an active worker in the young people's class of the Methodist Sunday School and his sad death while serving his King and country is deeply regretted by a host of friends, especially his many former associates. The heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Green and family in their sad bereavement.

Pte. Floyd Vary writes to Mr. James Norton from Cambridge hospital, England, as follows:
"Just a line to let you know I am getting home now. The doctor says my arm is no good to me yet as the bullet damaged the joint in some way. I am now going under treatment for it and will be here for some time. The war looks better for some time and they are giving the gun just what was coming to him. I am sure to send you a pocket book and knife I got off a German on 26th of August. The rest of my soldiers are back in France. Have just had my first area treatment and it sure fine, makes your arm move all over when the machine is turned on. Have had no letters since I came here but there should be some coming back from France by this time. I guess Emily would be glad to get your long long short story things in a paper. I have enjoyed reading them very much. With kind regards to your mother and all friends. Write soon, Floyd."

The William Lloyd, Canadian Legion, was held at Acton on Friday, October 25th, 1918. It was held in the afternoon at 7 o'clock and was attended by Mr. J. J. Gibbens, an officer, who was in the trenches in machine gun fire and that he did not speak of the loss. He was a good soldier, and will be missed by all who knew him in the company and elsewhere.
The deceased soldier had been fighting in Canada about eight years before he enlisted in December, 1915, and he was drafted to the Western Front in February, 1917. Mr. and Mrs. Lund have given four of their sons to the Army, and William is the first to make the supreme sacrifice. Pte. Harry Lawson Lund, of the Liverpool Scottish, is a prisoner of war in Germany; Gunner Thomas Lund of the R.F.A., is serving in Egypt; and Corporal Fred Lund is serving with the A.O.C. in France. One son-in-law, Third Air Mechanic William Shornock, is in the Royal Air Force; and another son-in-law Sergeant E. H. Blensdale, of the Coldstream Guards, has been given his discharge after nearly 3 1/2 years service with the Colors.
Pte. Lund was well known in Esquesing, having worked in this locality for some time.

MANY Victory Bread

Georgetown housewives have figured out that it pays to buy Victory Bread.

You know the cost of flour bought in the usual quantities, the cost of fuel, the possibility of the bread not turning out right, not to speak of the time and trouble home baking involves, and to provide your family with genuine good bread. All this is unnecessary. Just get Gibbens' Victory Bread. Try it and you'll buy it regularly.

To Encourage Small Subscribers to Loan

The Finance Department announces that arrangements have been made whereby the Canadian chartered banks, in order to encourage investors to participate, will grant reasonable certainty of repaying the advances within a year. The banks will advance up to 90 per cent. of the subscription the rate of interest being the same as that earned by the bonds—namely 5 1/2 per cent. per annum. Reduction payments may be made monthly or quarterly. The banks will also accept from small investors, for safe keeping, without charge, the interim securities, and later the bonds themselves, to a reasonable amount, for the term of only one year.

These arrangements have been made for the purpose of giving the greatest possible encouragement and assistance to small subscribers.
