In Memorian

HANCOCK—In loving memory of our dear mother, Nellie Hancock, who passed away on the 1st day of November 1915.

Three years have passed and still we miss her,
Never shall her memory fade;
Loving thoughts will always linger,
Round the grave where Mother's laid.
Her memory is as dear to-day,
As at the hour she passed away;
When days are dark and friends are few,
Oh, Mother how we long for you.
You're not forgotten Mother, nor will you ever be;
So long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.

Her Boys.

The Georgetown Herald

Wednesday, Novmeber 6th, 1918.

NEW REGULATIONS have been laid down at Ottawa, modifying the established grades of seed grain, in order to secure a plentiful supply of good seed for the ensuing year. Regulations have likewise been made regarding the importation of seeds into Canada. They aim to prevent the importation of undesirable seed.

THE HERALD these days is devoting much reading matter space for which we receive no remuneration to helping on the Victory Loan. We do it because, next to the war, the Victory Loan is the most important thing to every person in this country to-day. If the Victory Loan fails, it is not only that we go back on our Allies and our boys "over there"—if it fails Canada will have an era of hard times that no person likes to contemplate, because there will be no money to finance surplus farm products and manufacturers and the whole bottom will fall out of the financial fabric of the country. The man who will not do his best for the Victory Loan invites hard times. Leaving patriotism out of the question, and treating the matter purely in its business aspect, this paper prefers to do what it can to help a continuation of good times

Obituary

JOHN ROBERT LIVINGSTONE

A heroic struggle for life for several weeks did not avail with John R. Livingstone, the esteemed Mill Street merchant, who contracted inflenza about the 10th inst. The disease developed into pneumonia and pleurisy and after a brave fight his sturdy constitution was overcome on Tuesday evening. Great sorrow is felt at this untimely death. Mr. Livingstone was always popular. He had a kind word for everybody. He prospered in business and was happy in his home life. On October 10, 1914, he was joined in holy wedlock to Miss Grace Ross, and during these four years they have been much to each other. Mrs. Livingstone and their dear little six months'-old baby boy have the heartfelt sympathy of the community. Deceased was a member of Knox Church, having been received at the union communion service held at the conclusion of the union church services last April.' He was also a member of Acton Lodge I.O.O.F. No. 204. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the home of his father, Mr. Alex Livingstone, second line, to Fairview Cemetery. —Acton Free Press.

The late Thomas Shearer was a native of the Old Country and came to Canada several years ago. He was an honorably discharged soldier, having held the rank of Sgt. Major and served with the Connaught Rangers. He was a veteran of the South African War and was present at the relief of Ladysmith and Kimberly. He was awarded a medal for distinguised conduct on the field, also the South African war medal with four bars. Deceased was 56 years old.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon to Greenwood Cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. Wm. Burt, of St. George's Church.

JOHN LYONS ECCLES

Truly the Angel of death came as a theif in the night, without warning and stole away the sweet young life of Johnie dearly loved child of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Eccles, Mount Pleasant, aged 4 years and 5 months.

In the early dawn of Thursday October 31st, in the arms of his mother his spirit passed away to the great beyond leaving yet another home in grief and sadness. His remains were laid to rest in Brampton Cemetery on Saturday November 2nd, the funeral service being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Fairburn of Mount Pleasant Presbyterian Church who spoke briefly on the subject of trust and preparedness.

Safely, safely, gathered in,
No more sorrow, no more sin,
No more childish griefs or fears,
No more sadness no more tears,
For the life so young and fair
Now hath passed from earthly care;
God Himself the soul will keep
Living his beloved sleep.
Safely, safely, gathered in,
Free from sorrow free from sin,
Passed beyond all grief and pain,
Death for thee is truest gain.
For our loss we must not weep,
Nor our loved one long to keep
From the home of rest and peace
Where all sin and sorrow cease.
Safely, safely, gathered in,
No more sorrow no more sin,
God has saved from weary strife
In its dawn this fresh young life:
Which awaits us now above,
Resting in the Saviour's love.
Jesus grant that we may meet
There adoring at thy feet.—Com.

"You will, of course, have heard before you receive this of my being wounded. We had a pretty hot time but I suppose the luck was on my side as I came out without getting seriously hurt. I was hit below the hip and managed to get hold of two German prisoners to help me back a couple of hundred yards where I got fixed up and am at present at No. 18 general hospital close to the base and doing O.K. I lost my razor and watch chain, also got my watch broken in the excitement, but am not losing any sleep over them. We lost our officer, who was a fine fellow too and all were sorry to lose him. It was certainly a treat to get into a good bed last night and believe me I enjoyed a good sleep."

This competition applies to the Province of Ontario and is in honor of the splendid assistance given by the Province helping to win the great war.

The conditions laid down by the Headquarters executives as a basis of fair competition are as follows.

1. "One Boat to be named by the County or Unit securing the largest percentage of its total objectives; that is, the total of team members and special subscriptions combined.

2. One Boat to be named by the County or Unit securing the largest number of combined applications. (Team members and special subscriptions) pro rata of population.

3. One Boat to be named by the County or Unit securing the largest percentage of its team members objective.

The grand total objective for the County of Halton is $1,450,000 made up in this way. $1,400,000 for the team members objective and $50,000 special subscriptions objective. The special subscription objective is made up of a list of persons who are thought capable of subscribing $25,000.00 or more. We, in so far as special subscriptions go, are in this county in a most favorable position in having such a low objective.

Georgetown housewives have figured out that it pays to buy
