Postal Revenues in Halton

The annual report of the Postmaster-General for the past fiscal year has just been received. The revenues received at the accounting offices in Halton are as follows: Georgetown, . $8,815.87; Acton, $6,421.48; Bronte, $1,817.60; Burlington, $7,985.84; Campbellville, $1,579.96; Freeman, $1,509.84; Glenwilliams, $807.92; Hornby, $719.77; Milton, $9,878.79; Oak ville, $18,445.10; Palermo, $471.92; Port Nelson, $684.64. Radial for Milton

Since the carrying of the Hydro-Radial by-laws at Hamilton and in Nelson last Saturday, Sir Adam Beck has announced that the Hydro-Radial line from Port Credit to Guelph, connecting with the Guelph-London line, will be put through as quickly as possible. This line, it is understood, will run through. Milton. At first it was proposed that it would start from Oakville, but it was found that grades would be too stiff and Port Credit got the preference.-Cham-

Tes at 43 Per Bottle A bunch of travellers were standing around Scotia Junction waiting for connections when a rural youth, who had been sizing them up, picked a likely one, wink-ed mysteriously, and tapping his hip pooket, whispered: "Want to buy some tea?" He did, and a consultation behind the station resulted in the exchange of $8 for a promising-looking bottle. He tipped off four others, and four other deals were put through. That night at Parry Sound they prepared to make merry. The cork was pulled in No. 1, and at the first swig's look of dismay came to the face of the "swigger." "Great Scott!" he roared, "it is tea." And it was .- Parry Sound Star.

Oldest Methodist Minister The home of Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Jefferies, Oakville, was visited by a great many persons, one day recently. It was the occasion of the reverend gentleman's 97th birthday, and the callers were profuse in their good wishes. Rev. Jefferies is the oldest living Metho-dist preacher in Canada and has worked in the Lord's vineyard as a preacher for more years than any other preacher in the country. He is keeping in good health and re-taining his faculties in a remarkable manner. His friends, and they are legion, will wish that he may at least round out the century Rev. and Mrs. Jefferies-were residents of Stewarttown half a sen-

Balance the Giving and Getting

Every time you buy a War Savings Stamp buy a Thrift Stamp also and give that to some one who can spare 'very little for the "nest egg" fund. Do this to keep your self from becoming stingy. It is possible to hold a "quarter" so close to the eye that the whole world will be shut out. It is possible to chase "quarters" so vigorously as to forget everything else and even the compound interest is not going to pay for losing sight of the fact that the best thing about

Don't forget about the talent buried in each napkin. That was thrift gone wrong like an ingrowing nail. By spending a little for some one else everytime you save for yourself you keep the stream of human kindness pure and clear and refreshing. Incidentally, you help the Government if you give Thrift Stamps. Of course no one would object in the least if you gave more; but if you have not formed the habit of balancing your giving and getting you will naturally begin on a small scale.
