The Happy Days of Long Ago

The happy days of long ago,
That once were mine to live and know, Come back on memory wings and soar.

The canvas of a glorious dream,
I never knew, when they were mine How fragrant was the smell of pine How beautiful the apple trees
That lured the honey-seeking bees;
As every careless boy I heard The music of the humming bird
And never understood back then,
I'd yearn to know those joys again.
A careless boy I straggled the lanes And faced the summer suns and rains—
And never knew my riches then,
For I was envying grown-up men,
I lived as one apprentice blessed,
But not a boy I never guessed The treasures that were mine to own But now that all these joys have flown,
It seems to me I never see The blossoms of the apple tree So pink and white as those that I knew.

Back then I heard the robins sing
With every glad returning spring, But paid no heed. They came and went,
As carelessly my days were spent,
But now I know my soul was thrilled
With every note they gayly trilled
For not a robin sings to-day,
To me in such a glorious way Life lavished splendors on me then,
And with her magic brush and pen Drew pictures on the earth and sky.

But heedless I passed them by,
Now as I sit and yearn to know
The happy days of long ago
I wonder if the girls and boys
Of now appreciate their joys,
Or do they live the same as I And let their pleasures hurry by,
And will they, too, when they are grown Recall the charms that they have known?
Their happiest hours they now possess,
But this, I fear, they'll never guess Until as I they yearn to know,
The glorious days of long ago.

Thrift Table to Date

Here is an interesting little table you will like to "go over" in your mind.

"A penny saved is a penny earned."
"Twenty-five cents saved is a Thrift Stamp."
"Sixteen Thrift Stamps is a War Savings Stamp."

"One War Savings Stamp in five years becomes five dollars."

There is a sequel to that table but the sequel depends on those who follow directions. A boy of fifteen can save enough to give himself a handsome little nest egg just when he needs it most. Likewise the girl of fifteen may have a comfortable little sum with which to carry out her pet ambition.
Father or mother in five years will need money even more than they need it to-day and by the help of the little table they will not feel themselves a burden. Even grandfather or grandmother will and their days in pure thankfulness because their children have risen up and called them blessed. And all these blessings are within reach by taking thought five years beforehand and buying Thrift Stamps to-day.

Bombs for Road Hogs

After a close study of the art and science of hand grenade throwing as practised in the European trenches, Dr. A. L. Marks of Spokane, Wash., has evolved a method of blowing the road hog into the ditch. The blowing, however, is done without damage to anything save the grenade, which suffers destruction with a loud report, on being thrown so that it lands immediately behind the hogging car.
The noise leads the driver to think that he has sustained a blowout, and while he pulls up at the roadside to effect repair work, the wily grenade-thrower sails gaily by into the clear dustless road.

"Judges hold that a man when taking whiskey for medical purposes must not do so away from home. Men, see to it that you are taken sick at the proper place."

"Eggs are said to be only six cents a dozen in China. However, our experience of China eggs is that they are too indigestible at any price."

VINOL MAKES GOOD BLOOD

Positive—Convincing Proof
Many so-called remedies for anaemia are only so in name. Their insufficiency is proved by their failure to bring about a permanent cure.
The only way to be honest with the people is to let them know what they are paying for. Here is the Vinol formula. When the doctor knows what a medicine contains, it ceases to be a "mystery" medicine.
Vinol is a "perfect" medicine. It is made of purest ingredients, and is entirely free from any harmful substances. It is a "perfect" medicine.
Any doctor will tell you that the best of all medicines is that which will enrich the blood and build up the system. Vinol does this. When the blood is poor, and the body is weak, Vinol is the only medicine that will improve your health.
You can prove this at our expense return your bottle to us. Vinol will not improve your health.
