Milton

Last Thursday Deputy-Sheriff Robt. Joyce and Constable W. A. Chapman escorted Joseph Raynor, the convicted horse thief, to Kingston, to put in four years in the penitentiary.

The non-jury sittings of the County Court were opened on Tuesday by Judge Elliott and closed by him within five minutes, there were no cases listed.

About 9 a.m. on Monday the roof of the public school building took fire, from, it is supposed, a spark from the chimney. There was a high wind and the situation seemed serious. The alarm was rung and the fire brigade turned out, but it was not needed. Good and prompt work with water pails quenched the fire.—Champion.
