THE CANADIAN REPRESENTATIVE at London has called the Canadian trade commission. It is all very interesting and it is being held at the Hotel Cecil in London. Several thousand merchants all over the globe who had intimate relations with the former agents of the traders of yesteryear.

COMPLAINT has been made that some of the butter being sold as pound prints are short in the weight. Our merchants should weigh up a few pounds as they are brought in and ascertain if the weight is there or not. When the price is so high purchasers want full weight. We note that last week a woman was caught on the market at Hamilton, selling short weight butter. Twelve pounds were confiscated, each being under weight and she was brought up in Police Court and fined.

Wright, one of the early settlers near Milton, and was born 38 years ago on the old homestead. She came to Georgetown with her husband in 1874 and resided here until Mr. Appelbe's death 6 years ago, since which time she has lived with her son Mr. Pierce Appelbe in Buffalo. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Church for over 30 years and was an exemplary Christian woman, a true and true friend. The funeral took place from the home of Col. W. P. More Homecomings and Joyous Welcome Extended

Nursing Sister Elvira Thompson, daughter of our esteemed townsmen Mr. Wm. Thompson, who has been serving with the American Red Cross in France, arrived home on Friday last and was given a hearty welcome by relatives and numerous friends. Miss Thompson is looking splendid after her many varied experiences.

Pte. Tom Neile of the old 4th Battalion and one of the first to enlist, didn't wait for the grand parade in Toronto last Wednesday. He said Georgetown looked too good to him, so he beat it and arrived here unannounced on Wednesday evening last. We're all proud of Tom's record and delighted to see him safe home again. A sad feature, refreshed by Tom's visit is the fact that his brother Ernest who enlisted with him and afterwards became a pilot in the Imperial Air Force, made the supreme sacrifice. He was shot down by the enemy while flying in France.

On Friday Sp. Harry Elliott of the Canadian Engineers, arrived in town and received a hearty welcome from numerous friends. He left with Mrs. Elliott on Saturday evening for his home in Barrie.

Staff Sgt. M. Merryday of the 4th Battalion, who was returned from overseas, was given a hearty welcome when he arrived by rail on Sunday evening. He was looking fine. (See Glen News).

Another boy who has brought honor to this community is Sgt. Cecil Polkinghorne D.C.M., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Polkinghorne, Limehouse, who returned home last week. Cecil had some thrilling experiences and very close calls but escaped without a scratch and brought the Distinguished Conduct Medal with him.

The following kind and appreciative words were handed to Staff Sgt. M. Merryday, of Glenwilliams, by his Commanding Officer, just prior to his leaving France for England:—

France, Dec. 3rd, 1918.
 To Staff Sgt. Merryday,
 My Dear Staff Sergeant—It is with deep regret that I have just received instructions to send you to your Base Depot, with a view to your ultimate return to Canada.

You have been with my command for some 22 months, during which time I cannot express how much I feel I am indebted to you for your true loyalty, your unselfish disregard for the many hard and strenuous times we have been through. Your ability and steadfastness have been a true asset to the rest of my staff to follow. I have invariably felt when called away, that I have been able to leave the conduct, and control, not only of the Office Staff, but as my senior N.C.O., the whole of the personnel of the Unit to which you were attached entirely in your hands.

I can but most sincerely regret our association is now to be severed, and each to take up, once again, the paths of peace. I can but wish for you a life of happiness and prosperity.

Should you join any firm, in a business capacity, on your return, I can but say you have shown by your past conduct, you are one in whom every confidence can be placed, not only on account of your steadfast integrity, but also on your firm capacity, in the management and organizing power, of an office staff.

I can but trust that, in after life, you will always remember you have a life-long friend in me.
 Yours truly and faithfully
 H. Alex. Judd, Lt.-Col. Valenciennes.

Glenwilliams

Staff Sgt. Montague Merryday was given a hearty welcome home from overseas on Sunday evening. A procession, headed by the band, was formed at the Radial Station and he was escorted to his home in the Glen. A large crowd had gathered here, and the returned Sergeant spent a pleasant hour greeting old friends.

Work on our new walk is proceeding rapidly. It will be a great improvement in the appearance of the village.
