Fire at House of Refuge

Just after church on Easter Sunday the people of the town were startled by the ringing of the fire bell. The call came from the Halton Peel House of Refuge, where a blaze had been discovered among the clothing laid ready for the week's laundry on the ensuing day.

With great presence of mind, the women of the house got pails and organized a bucket brigade, pouring water on the smouldering clothing until every vestige of fire had been extinguished.

Mr. Armstrong was absent in Guelph, where he had gone with a patient who was to become an inmate of the hospital, and Mrs. Armstrong had not yet returned from church. They are both warm in their praises of the efforts of those who prevented what might have been a serious loss to the county, and also what might have resulted in a great deal of physical ill to the inmates.

It is thought that one of the inmates, in turning over the clothing on the chance of finding tobacco in the pockets, had dropped a spark from his pipe, and inadvertently set fire to the garments. The loss will be covered by $50, due to the burning of the underclothing, and to a hole which was burned in the verandah.—Conservator.

AUDITORS' REPORT

In accordance with the provisions of Sub-sections 19 and 20 of Section 56 of the Bank Act, we report to the Shareholders as follows:

We have examined the above Balance Sheet with the books and vouchers at Head Office and with the certified returns from the Branches, and we have obtained all the information and explanations we have required, and in our opinion the transactions which have come under our notice have been within the powers of the Bank.

We have checked the cash and verified the securities of the Bank at the Chief Office and at several of the principal Branches during the twelve months covered by this statement, as well as on February 28th, 1919, and have found that they agreed with the entries in the books of the Bank with regard thereto.

In our opinion the Balance Sheet is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Bank's affairs according to the best of our information and the explanations given us, and as shown by the books of the Bank.

"My hermiting business is ruined." James Morgan stood in the doorway of his hermitage and gazed resentfully across Silver lake, where the red brick buildings of the new Ashton Memorial hospital loomed against a blue June sky.

The slight frown developed into a pronounced scowl as his ears detected a faint humming which originated some distance back of the shack. The humming became a roar as a motor car, with cutout open, whizzed past not far from the dwelling of the dejected hermit.

Don't Let Your Brown Sugar Crock Get Empty

IN addition to your Lantic "fine" granulated sugar you should always keep on hand a supply of

Lantic Old Fashioned Brown Sugar

It saves money and adds variety and zest to your cooking. The natural delicious molasses taste of Lantic Old-fashioned Brown Sugar is a decided improvement to many sweets. It blends deliciously with the flavors of all dried fruits. Nearly all dishes containing raisins, dates, figs or currants are better when made with brown sugar.

Spices and brown sugar are on the friendliest terms. Spiced cookies and cup cakes and all sweet pickles or spiced fruits are better when made with brown sugar than with white.

For fear these old-fashioned recipes might be forgotten, we have reprinted a number of the best of them in a booklet called "Grandmother's Recipes." We will send it to you upon receipt of a 2c. stamp. Your grocer knows this sugar by the name of Lantic Brilliant Yellow, and will sell you any quantity.
