Serious Fire at Erindale

A lighted match carelessly thrown into a coal-oil drip tank in J. M. Barker's general store on Dundas street started a blaze on Monday afternoon, May 5th, that practically wiped out the whole business section of Erindale last week. J. M. Barker's store, his residence, the Erindale Hotel, stables and sheds, and the Anglican Parish Hall were burned to the ground. Ward's chopping mill and Geo. Burko's implement agency, though on fire several times, were saved. The total loss is estimated at about $80,000.

The grand open air concert which will be held on Friday evening, July 26th, will be much superior to that of previous years. Following is the programme:

Teachers' Met

The local branch of the Women Teacher's Association met in the Public School last Saturday afternoon. The President, Miss M. E. Currie, gave an interesting account of some papers dealt with at the O.T.A. during Easter week. Discussion, in which all took part, followed the President's address and many helpful points brought out. It was regretted that unfavorable weather prevented some from attending. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Killed By Train

Last Friday, at about 7.25 a.m., Mrs. James Gooderick was struck by the C.P.R. fler from Chicago near the works of the Milton Pressed Brick Co. Her husband was building a house for himself south of the works. She had been at it and was on her way home, walking eastward on the track, outside of, but too close to the rails. She was thrown some distance. The train was stopped and she taken on it to Toronto. She died from spinal injuries soon after arrival at Western Hospital. Mrs. Gooderick came to Milton from England seven years ago. She was highly esteemed by her friends. She left no children.—Milton Champion.

Fined $500

Rev. Ben H. Spence, General Secretary of the Dominion Temperance Alliance, has been fined $500 by Police Magistrate Kingsford, of Toronto, for a transgression of the censorship. Mr. Spence had printed, with a view to circulation in Canada, an edition of 2,000 copies of "The Parasite," a book exposing the evils of the liquor traffic in England. The book had not been sold or circulated at all. Of course, in view of the law, it was understood that a number of irksome regulations issued by the censor, and he expresses his appreciation of the way the press of Canada assisted him, and Rev. Ben H. Spence is as much under the law as any one else. The Globe editorially protests in a vigorous way, saying that the decision may be law, but it is not justice. Some other papers rather side with the Police Magistrate.

Kelly-Lyons

A quiet wedding took place at Union church on Thursday, April 17th, at 2.30 p.m. when Edith Curry, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Lyons was married to Mr. William Robert Kelly, only son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Kelly, Clarkson. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives and a Miss Muriel Hutton presided at the organ. The bride who was unattended, wore a suit of sand color with a black hat and carried a handsome bouquet of opheelia roses. Very few friends, but Rev. J. A. Ferguson of Norval and Union, and Miss Muriel Hutton presided at the organ. The bride who was unattended, wore a suit of sand color with a black hat and carried a handsome bouquet of opheelia roses.
