Married
 SINCLAIR-LANE-In Toronto, on Saturday, June 28th, at High Park Ave. Methodist church, Rev. R. H. Bell, Verlena Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. John H. Lane of Georgetown, to Frederick Sinclair of Georgetown.

Died
 OWEN-In Georgetown, on Friday, June 27th, 1919, James Owen, in his 85th year.

The Georgetown Herald
 Wednesday July 31st, 1919

SOON VERY soon, it is to be hoped that the question of Georgetown's war memorial will be definitely settled and a start made at erecting it. It is not unreasonable to hold that sufficient time has been allowed for coming to a definite conclusion as to the nature and design of the memorial. In a number of other towns memorials are now well under way.

HAVING SECURED the peace that the world has long yearned for, let us now bend our energies to building on a solid foundation that leaves out of reckoning selfishness and the mad ambition that obsessed Germany. War doesn't pay, and never did, but there are even worse things than war. If we can remove the disturbing influences that the world will be assured for peace and then, indeed, the swords can be beaten into plowshares.

AN ACT has been passed to prevent people from buying and selling coal by the car-load unless they are in the business. Any one dealing in coal must be properly equipped in the way of shed room, provision for delivering, etc., before being granted a license, which cost $25, and is issued by the Fuel Controller. This enactment was made to protect men who invest in coal supplies all the year around for the convenience of the public.

IT IS HIGH TIME now that the world should settle down in earnest to its tremendous task of reconstruction. This is a task that will require the greatest exertions of each nation, and must not be interfered with by labor disputes, divisions or senseless bickering. All classes of industry need to be united to repair the wreckage and ruin left in the wake of the most destructive war in history. There is immense prosperity ahead if we care to ensure it; a period of stagnation will inevitably follow any other course.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS has just passed a bill granting wider powers to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, and the National Executive, which met in Ottawa Friday, has authorized the branches of the fund throughout Canada to hereafter engage in post-discharge work. Although a considerable balance still remains to the credit of the Patriotic Fund, new responsibilities now being assumed will call for heavy expenditure. Only so long as these funds hold out can this post-war relief be continued.

HEY, THERE, MR. MAN, who that worried look off your face, stow your troubles in your roll-top desk and pull down the top and go fishing. You've not been fishing for a long, long time now, not since you were a kid, and hauled a cut-fish out of the town creek with a home-made hook and line amid the jealous glances of all the other fellows. It isn't fair to yourself to mope and brood—around your office all the time, never getting out into the country where way will bliss come from troubling and correspondence is at rest. Come on, old son!

Of course you may not catch any fish, but what's the difference? It's not so much the fish that constitutes the fascination of fishing as it is the loitering around in the midst of nature with never a worry or care. It's the scent of the countryside, the exchange of common-places with the folks you meet, the smoke and the forgetting of all the frets and vexations of daily life that makes fishing so fascinating. If you do catch something, so much the better.

Soldier Sons Return
 During the past week more of our brave soldier sons have returned from overseas. All were accorded a hearty welcome to their old home and our citizens were justly proud to do honor to those who have risked all to protect home and country. Those who arrived were:—

Sgt. Henry Sheppard, Stewarttown.
 Pte. J. D. Hood, Stewarttown.
 Pte. James Drummond, Georgetown.
 Pte. Harry Lewis, Glen Williams.
 Pte. Alfred Allen, Glen Williams.
 Welcome home boys, we're all proud of you.

Stewarttown
 On Friday evening our village put on a holiday garb and turned out in numbers to welcome Sgt. Henry Sheppard from overseas. His home was prettily decorated by the ladies of the W.I.

The evening was spent in sports, music and dancing, a dance being given by the ladies, after which the singing of the National Anthem brought a happy evening to a close.

Glen Williams
 Mr. Thos. Roberts, who returned recently from France, having served nearly five years in the C. E. F., has re-opened his barber shop this week. It is to be hoped that the Glen will give him its patronage.

A new industry is now in full swing in the village. The soft drink brewery operated by Mr. Jno. Thompson, is turning out a line of high class goods. Customers can be supplied on short notice.

Headed by the Glen band, Loyal Orange Lodge No. 349, paraded to service at St. Alban's church on Sunday afternoon. The lodge turned out 80 strong, and its ranks were further by visiting members from neighboring lodges. The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Burt, who also preached a very eloquent sermon to a crowded church.

Misses Marie Graham, Margaret Willoughby and Susie Pessowood passed the introductory piano examination at the Conservatory, with honors. All are pupils of Miss M. E. McMaster.

Last Tuesday, July 1st, the Rev. A. S. Trueblood was very pleasantly surprised by the officials, choir and League of the Glen Williams Methodist Church. The following address was given and a purse of money presented to the retiring pastor and wife just prior to his departure for his new circuit.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Trueblood:—
 We wish to express our regret that you are leaving us and we also wish to show our appreciation of your work here. We know that at times it has not been pleasant for you, and your untiring energy under such trying circumstances has revealed to us your generous and true spirit. We are very sorry to lose you and extend our sincere wishes to you, both and to Gerald for a happy and prosperous future. As a token of our esteem please accept this gift.

Signed on behalf of officials, Choir and League:
 Daniel Ried,
 C. J. Cummings,
 Myrtle Cummings.

—The reason some girls take time to answer a proposal is that they have to take time to practice a cold and scornful look.

Ballinlad
 Miss Annie Waddell has been successful in her matriculation exams at Toronto. Congratulations Annie. Mrs. J. R. Picketing and Miss Margaret of Ingonis Falls, are visiting at the Manse. Their many friends are glad to hear that.

Mr. Gavin Cree, who underwent an operation in Guelph hospital last Friday, for appendicitis, is getting along as well as could be expected.

We are pleased to hear that Miss Cora Vanmeter is improving after an attack of appendicitis. A very pleasant time was spent last Thursday evening on the lawn at McHenry's, when the members of the Ladies Institute presented our returned soldier boys with silver jacket rings.

The presentation was made by the honorary president, Mrs. Richard Stewart. There were four of the boys present, Corporal Hazel, James McKeel, Berle, Sinclair, and John McKay. James, Allen, having gone West, was represented by his father, who was asked to come forward and accept the gift. The presentation a happy incident was partaken of, followed by speeches from Rev. N. Waddell, Messrs. B. Campbell, Geo. Campbell and G. R. Sayers, a duet by Mrs. Bessie and Miss Louise, and violin selections by Mr. H. Stewart and A. McKay.

Mrs. E. J. Walker and Miss Irene Walker who have been visiting friends here, are spending a few days with friends in Georgetown. Mr. and Mrs. Murray of Crewson's Corners spent Sunday at the home of Mr. John Burnside.

Terra Cotta
 The Methodist congregation gathered at the home of Mr. Wm. Marshall on Monday evening, June 30th, to say farewell to their pastor and his wife. After a sumptuous repast had been partaken of, Mr. Marshall called the friends to order and presented a review of the work and the annual financial statement which showed the largest balance on hand in the history of the church. He then referred very beautifully to the energetic efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Trueblood and expressed regret at having to part with them. As a token of esteem from the friends of Terra Cotta, Rev. and Mrs. Trueblood were asked to accept a purse of money. Mr. Trueblood replied very touchingly and urged all to be faithful and loyal to the new minister.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Maynard spent Sunday with friends at the Credit Forks.

The Canada Brick Co. are again in operation and are making large quantities of brick.

Mr. F. C. McLean of Erin, spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. E. Townsend last week.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. C. Ledwidge is quite ill at present. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. Blackstock and her father or Mr. John Logan, of Michigan, were visitors at Mr. Wm. Hunter's during the week.

Miss Wilma Hunter is visiting her aunt Mrs. D. Ritchie, at Durham.

The children of Mountain View school, accompanied by their parents, attended a picnic at Stanley Park last Wednesday afternoon given by the teacher, Miss Gladys Baxendale, who has resigned. A number of pupils of the 5th line school were also present. She was presented with a gold fountain pen by her pupils.

Milton
 Jack G. Elliot, son of Judge Elliot, figures in the 1919 prize list of Upper Canada College as the winner of the prize for science in Form Lower V.

Major and Mrs. Panton, of Milton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beatrice Margaret, to Major W. E. P. Duncan, Royal Engineers, son of Dr. Eben Duncan, Glasgow, Scotland, the marriage to take place in July.

Judge Elliot opened Division Court sittings for Milton last Friday. There were no cases to try, for the second time in the history of the division. The first time was May last.

The Board of Education must engage two more teachers before the school reopens—a principal for the high school, to replace Mr. MacCallum, and also a successor for Miss Young, who has also accepted change of a department in Georgetown public school, that she may live with her parents. To Mr. MacCallum and Miss Young is due the credit for the high standing of the continuation school. They will be greatly missed.
