Should Not Be Neglected

There is one spot in every municipality that ought to be properly looked after. We refer to the cemetery. If neglected it gives a bad impression to visitors. Indeed some would go so far as to say that you can judge of character of a community by the way in which the people look after their dead. Greenwood cemetery is equal to most of them but there are some neglected spots.

Methodist S.S. Picnic

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent last Thursday by the members of the Methodist Sunday School and congregation. It was the occasion of the Annual Picnic and was held in our town park. A Booth had been provided where everyone could obtain ice cream. Much of the success of the picnic was due to the fact that both young and old entered heartily in the sports after which all participated in a delightful and bountiful repast.

Young Lieutenant Shot

Niagara Falls, N.Y., July 18. - Walter G.
