

THE GREAT OBJECT

(S. E. Kiser)
Why are the mad people hurrying so?
Whence have they come and where do they go?
What is the object of each as he rushes
And jostles and pushes and buffets and crushes?
Why is the look of the strong man so grim?
What is the hope which is hurrying him?
Why are the people all pushing along?
The young and the old, the weak and the strong?
They are all, though they hurry in gloom or distress,
Going forth to get money that others possess.
What is the hope that the child is thus taught?
What is the aim of the student's earnest thought?
Why does the scribbler bend over the page?
Why does the scribbler bend over the page?
Why does the market of thousands still beat?
The cares and the fears that have whitened his hair?
Why does the naked hand organ man play?
Why does he impatiently drive him away?
What is the hope that each has at aim
Of the strong and the weak and the little and the lame?
What does life mean to the great and the humble
Who come and who go and who rise and who stumble?
What is the hope that each has at the start
And clings to till death lays cold hands on his heart?
Oh, why do the servants keep bearing the loads,
And why do the masters keep using the goods?
One hopes they go sharing in joy and in stress,
They are after the money that others possess.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy.

Allow no one to convince you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA
Castoria is a harmless substance for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food, gives healthy and natural sleep.
