WHY?

I will remember how in long past days,
Oft by your side I went where grief was rife,
And there we worked midst sorrow, pain and strife,
Saw suffering intense in divers ways,
Keen recollections come: how you would sigh,
To see the anguish deep on every hand;
There was so much you could not understand,
You were but mortal, and so, I understand,
Why?

Then when you seemed so near your heart's desire,
When life's best blessing seemed so near in sight,
And future months and years seemed full of light,
Your heart ached with love's all powerful fire,
It seemed so hard just then for you to go,
Just when your pathway gleamed with happiness,
And bending o'er you for a last caress,
I heard you whisper the old question,
Why?

But after you had died I came again,
And through my falling tears gazed on your face,
Yet comfort found, for understanding grace
Was on your brow; to you all things were plain,
Christina W. Partridge.

Acton

Miss Barbara Warren, Toronto, was the guest of Mr. James L. Warren during the week.

Mr. Charles B. Ebbage, of Kitchener, was here this week visiting his mother, who has been ill for a week or so.

Miss Lottie Statham and Mr. S. Statham, of Toronto, visited at the home of Mr. Thos. Statham over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. T. Beardmore and Francis and Knox are spending a couple of months at Minneogishish in Georgian Bay.

Mr. Charles Selwood, of Calgary, Alta., has joined Mrs. Selwood and the children at Mr. A. E. Nicklin's and will spend a week or two here.

Miss Margaret Barnes, of Rochester, N. Y., Miss Mary Vannatter, Georgetown, Lance-Corporal Thomas E. Bennett, Toronto and Flight Lieutenant Charles F. Bennett, of Saskatoon, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bennett, Lake Avenue, this week.

The dance in the drill shed was evidently run on standard time on Saturday night. Residents of that able number. They were under the command of Sergt. Major Hawes. Acton Citizens' Band led the parade. Rev. J. C. Wilson was in charge of the funeral and was assisted at the grave by Rev. I. M. Moyer. The "last post" was sounded by Sergt. Major Hawes on the bugle.—Free Press.

How to get the News.

Day before yesterday a perfectly nice lady called up and with tears in her voice reproved us for not mentioning the fact that she had a friend visiting her last week. We told her that she had not let us know that she had a visitor. Then she said "Well you should have known. I thought you were running a newspaper." Wouldn't that rattle your slats? Some people think that the editor ought to be a cross between Argus and Anna Eva Fay. They seem to think that our five senses are augmented by a sixth that lets us know everything that happens, even if he see, hear, feel, taste or smell it not. Dear lady, editors are only human, or at least nearly human. If you have a friend visiting you, if you are going away, or have returned from a visit out of town, if Johnny falls and breaks his arm, if your husband chops his toe instead of a stick of wood, if anything happens to make you glad, or sad, happy or mad, call us up. Tell us about it. That's the way to get it in the paper.—From the Kinross Reformer.

Erin

Miss Brown of Acton, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. McKinney. Misses Myrtle and Maggie McKinney spent the week end with friends in Toronto.

All places of business were closed here on Saturday last, but there was no celebration on account of the big one held here on the 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walker and son, Lieut. John Walker, of Toronto, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hill and other friends.

Ray and Miss W. J. Davidson and Masters Harold and Donald, Georgetown, and a lady friend, from Buffalo, were visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Griffin.—Advocate.
