

THINGS

(Aline Kilmer)
Sometimes when I am at ten with you I catch my breath a thought that is old as the world is old and more bitter than death.

The Geo
s that the spoon you just laid down
And the cup that you hold, may be shining and innocent When you are still and cold.

Your careless not that I laid away May leap to my eyes like flame When the world has almost got gotten your voice
Or the spirit of your name.
The golden Virgin de Vinci drew May smile on over my head And daffodils no din the silver vase When you are dead.
So let not friend dust corrupt and Lies
Break through and I shall be glad Because of the "hated" I bear things
Instead of the love I had The loamy only a shuddering beat.
Another, despondent cry, I things have a terrible permanence
When people die.

Appeal to Foresters

In article in the July number of "Forester," the official organ of the Independent Order of Foresters, calls attention to the fact that orphans are buried in a special in the cemetery at Oakville.
Morgan is anxious that a suit-ment be erected, showing the plot belongs to the Fore-and that each little grave be led with the name, etc., of each buried in it. Mr. Morgan wants every Court in the Order to have a hand in making a suitable and lasting resting place for the little ones. He is making an appeal for only one dollar from each Court.
If all subscribe, as they surely will, the total amount will be sufficient to meet the expense.

A Chance for Vocalists

The Canadian National Exhibition is adding a distinctly new feature this year, which should prove an encouragement to young vocalists. The phonographic manufacture is arranging for this unique competition, which is open to males and females up to twenty-five years of age, the prizes being two partial scholarships. The judges will be such authorities as Dr.
Vogt, Dr. Han, Frank Wolman, Alfred Bruce and several others equally as well known in the musical world. Competitors may make an entry with and secure full information from Miss Mae Skilling, 54 Wellington St. West, Toronto.

Not a Fair Picture of War Brides

A few miles from Wingham a returned soldier is having considerable difficulty in touching his war bride how to perform household duties, says the Ripley Express.
She does not take kindly to washing dishes and keeping the home in order. After meals she insists on sitting on the table, smoking cigarettes and taking life easy. She says Canada is a horrid place, with no brass bands, and wishes she was back to old London. The Georgetown war brides are of an entirely different stamp from the Ripley variety. They are lady-like, modest and real home-makers. They speak very kindly of Canada and say they have made many warm friends since coming here. Georgetown has welcomed cordially her war brides, and they are worthy of it.

Interesting Bit of History

"Rob Roy" of Oakville has been writing an interesting letter in the Toronto World recalling some of Halton's early history. He speaks of the "Oakville House" built in 1887, which still standing although divided into several stores. The writer says that "The site of the old tavern is on an Indian burying ground, that stretched from it to the bank of the river. Many skeletons of the lonely redman, sleeping beside them were disturbed in digging the cellar. Standing like a sentinel where lake and river meet, the old building has seen many changes. It has seen the immense timber and grain trade grow and vanish, the immense fleet of schooners disappear, the fine yards where the "Rob Roy" was built, has seen the fastest motor yachts built beside them. In the international it go out and built by the most cup from boats of the world. This famous building in Edward of form-hotel was the King of Darcy Moor days. The names Ge and Sir John MacDonald are found in one of the rusty registers.
For some years it has been used as an hotel, but has been divided into several stores. May the old build-be long cherished as one of the historic spots of Oakville!"

Wake up, Ontario!
Let the Referendum Battle-Cry Be "No!" - "No!" - "No!" - "No!"

SINCE the announcement in the Legislature last spring that a Referendum on the Ontario Temperance Act would be taken this fall, the different temperance organizations of the province of Ontario have met together to consider what attitude they should take. The result has been the formation of the Ontario Referendum Committee, which comprises representatives from the organized temperance forces of the province and the temperance sentiment of the province outside of these organizations. The new Committee will conduct the Campaign. We are asking the voters of Ontario to vote "No" to all questions submitted on the ballot.

The Referendum Ballot AND HOW TO VOTE

	Yes	No
1. Are you in favor of the repeal of THE ONTARIO TEMPERANCE ACT?		X
2. Are you in favor of the sale of light beer containing not more than two and fifty-one one hundredths per cent. alcohol weight measure through Government agencies and amendments to THE ONTARIO TEMPERANCE ACT to permit such sale?		X
3. Are you in favor of the sale of light beer containing not more than two and fifty-one one hundredths per cent. alcohol weight measure in standard hotels in local municipalities that by a majority vote favor such sale, and amendments to THE ONTARIO TEMPERANCE ACT to permit such sale?		X
4. Are you in favor of the sale of spirituous and malt liquors through Government agencies and amendments to THE ONTARIO TEMPERANCE ACT to permit such sale?		X

By the Ontario Temperance Act, sale and distribution of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes within the province were prohibited. For practically three years the province has experienced the good effects of this law. Its repeal would be a calamity. Any of the amendments would spoil it.

For the Temperance forces to win they must secure four "No" majorities. That is, a majority for "No" on EVERY question. The Temperance forces will be defeated if there is a majority for "Yes" on any of the questions. You must mark an X after each of the four questions, or your ballot is counted as spoiled.

A century of temperance progress in this province is at stake in the coming Referendum. The Ontario Referendum Committee earnestly and respectfully ask you to mark your X in the "No" column after each and every question, as indicated in the sample ballot reproduced herewith.
