An Enjoyable "At Home"

Mr. John J. Allen, President of the men's bowling club and Mrs. Allen, President of the ladies' bowling club, were at home to members of both clubs last Friday evening to do honor to Mr. Le Roy Dale, who recently won the Dominion Championship. There were over forty ladies and gentlemen present. After all had partaken of a most sumptuous dinner, President Allen and Reeve Grant made short and appropriate addresses, congratulating Mr. Dale, on his splendid achievement and expressed appreciation of the honor he had won for Georgetown. Mr. Dale in turn thanked the speakers for their kind words and stated that he was pleased to have been able to win the coveted trophy as a representative of Georgetown Bowling club. After a couple of hours spent in games and social intercourse a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the host and hostess and all returned to their homes delighted with the pleasant and enjoyable evening spent.
