The Biggest Fair in History of Society

The attendance at Esqueving Fair held at Georgetown, last Thursday was the biggest in the history of the Society. The fine day and the horse races no doubt helped to swell the crowd.

The exhibits of horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, etc., were good, while that of fowl surpassed anything seen heretofore in the country. In fowl alone there were over 500 entries and some of the best birds in the province were to be seen in the fine, new, wooden houses erected under the grand stand by the energetic and enterprising poultry breeders of Georgetown.

The display in the body of the hall was good considering the poor road and apple crop this season. The gallery of the hall never held a better display of fancy work than that exhibited this year.

The 20th Batt. Band played a splendid program during the afternoon, but a feature of former years that was much missed was the singing by Public School children.

The races which held the attention of the large crowd, under the control of official starter D. J. Hill of Glen Williams, resulted as follows:

| | | |
|-------------------------------|----------|----------|
| Opra Boy | 1 | 1 |
| Bourlath | 2 | 2 |
| Jim McCarron | 3 | 3 |
| Time | 2:75 1/2 | 2:46 |
| Jack Powers | 1 | 1 |
| Bertha Walsh | 2 | 2 |
| Billy Patch | 3 | 3 |
| Time | 2:28 1/2 | 2:21 1/2 |
| Motor cycle race, Jack Givens | 1 | 1 |
| Jack Moody | 2 | 2 |

FAIR NOTES
Mr. Frank King had a splendid exhibit of Brunswick Phonographs in the hall. It proved a great attraction to lovers of high class musical instruments.

The Esqueving Women's Institute should receive the thanks of all for the splendid luncheon and refreshments they served at their tent. It provided the means whereby many an aching void was filled.

The school children's exhibit in the hall was very much missed; it surely was an oversight the kiddies' class was omitted.

The Fakers did a fair business with both the wise, otherwise and foolish.

Too bad there wasn't a prize for the prettiest looking woman at Georgetown. We were sure had a whole lot of them.

The fowl exhibit was certainly something to crow about this year and we hear it will be bigger next.

There were numerous imbibers from bottles with straws in but the liquid didn't appear to have much head on it and there was no had after effects.

The ice cream cone man did a thriving business, while many of the products of the halloon man went bust.

W. H. Battledog of Port Credit, looked like a boy behind his fin, black driver that carried off the ribbon.

Mr. Fred Cook had a fine exhibit of autos and trucks of the celebrated McLaughlin and Chevrolet manufacture.

Mr. J. W. O'Neill's display of the popular Dodge Bros. autos attracted many prospective buyers.

See list of prize winners on inside page.

Citizens of Georgetown

Speaking of a Very Timely Matter

What do You Think of The Ontario Temperance Act?

WOULD YOU like to see liquor back in the saddle again--- not in Stratford, or Newmarket, or Peterborough--- but right here in our own fine, clean, progressive industrial Georgetown?

DO YOU KNOW of any or many happier homes, better nourished children, more considerate husbands---and some worldly comforts added?

MR. MERCHANT, has the loss of the booze industry destroyed your business as was solemnly predicted?

MR. MANUFACTURER, how do you feel about it?

Well suppose we just let this liquor curse crawl back and regain its feet. How would you like to see some mighty decent fellows who have cleaned up and got a fair start again, exposed to the old temptations? They don't want it --- and they certainly don't want you to wish it on them.

Quite apart from the moral view of things, from a strictly material side, has it not been about the best thing that ever happened Georgetown?

There is only one perfectly safe course, and that is

Place a Distinct X under each No on Your Ballot.

AND DON'T FORGET---This is "Ladies' Day" too. They now help settle the question for all time, and they surely will.

Get The Best!

Are You Peevish With Us?

Have we ruffled you? If we did, it was quite unintentional. But those things will happen, once in a while. Not very often---very seldom; in fact. But do this---Sit right down and get it off your chest by rubbing a pen over a piece of paper. Don't rub it too hard if you can help it, but write anyway, or better still, come in and tell us. Next to having you satisfied (which is what we are in business for), we want to hear when you are not satisfied, so we can fix it up. We don't believe in dissatisfied customers and will prevent it if at all possible.
