CANTON. At the parsonage, Norval, on November 19, 1919, to Rev. and Mrs. Cotton a daughter, Marjorie Winifred.

Died
DAYTON. In St. Paul Hospital, Vancouver, B.C., on Thursday, November 6th, 1919, Warner P. Dayfoot, youngest son of the late H. Dayfoot and Mrs. Dayfoot. The funeral will take place from his mother's residence, Georgetown, on Thursday, November 13th, at 2:30 p.m., interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. Kindly omit flowers.

In Memoriam
COLLE. In loving memory of Rebecca McQuinn, beloved wife of Jacob Cole, who departed this life on November 10th, 1919. Kindly omit flowers.

Obituary
MRS. T. M. DORR. Clara Johnston, beloved wife of Thomas Dobie of Esquimaux, passed peacefully away after a lingering illness on Friday, November 7th. Deceased was the youngest daughter of the late Capt. Johnston and was born in the village of Stewarttown in the year 1869. Being reared in a Christian home she early became a member of the Methodist church, and was a devoted wife and a sincere Christian. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her loss one brother and two sisters, W. D. Johnston of Georgetown, Mrs. J. N. Thompson of Esquimaux and Mrs. C. Mitchell of London, Ont. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Davidson, pastor of the Methodist Church. The pall-bearers were Norman Thompson, Gordon Mitchell, Johnston Thompson, J. Stewart, Bert and Alfred Thompson.

Terra Cotta
Auctioneer Patch conducted a successful sale for Josiah Townsend last week. Mrs. E. Little is in Guelph hospital where she underwent a serious operation. A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Searles last week, an enjoyable evening was spent in dancing. On the occasion of their golden wedding celebrated on November 8th, Mr. and Mrs. John Townsend were presented by members of the family and relatives with an address, two leather covered chairs and a purse of gold. A fowl supper was served and a pleasant evening spent in speeches, music, etc. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend's family consisted of five children, two of whom died some time ago, those remaining, Mr. Edward Townsend, Mrs. Charles Stringer and Mrs. Charles McKeown were present at the celebration. All join in extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Townsend.

Acton
Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Campbell, of Georgetown, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gamble on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold have removed from Bower Avenue to their recently acquired property on Main Street. Mrs. Ninian Lindsay, who nearly five weeks ago had the misfortune to fracture her thigh by a fall, while visiting at the home of her son, Mr. E. Lindsay, seems to show some signs of improvement. She is very patient and is receiving the best of care. On Sunday morning Capt. W. G. O. Kenney, of the Imperial Veterinary Forces, arrived at the home of his father, W. R. Kenney, J. P., after being enroute from Cairo, Egypt, since August. Capt. Kenney is in excellent health and has evidently stood his four years and six months with the Imperial army exceedingly well. He is thankful indeed to reach home again and the welcome accorded him was of the most cordial character.—Free Press

IN THE
Good Old Days
When the dollar bought a hundred cents worth, buying simply meant going into the nearest store and getting what you wanted for the amount you wished to spend; but times have changed, and now when the dollar does well if it gets fifty cents worth, buying has become what we may almost call an art. It now takes the shrewd buyer careful planning and study before he finds how and where to get the most value for his money.
Now for a suggestion. Why waste time and pay the expense of doing to the city only to find that prices have reached the clouds, and then get good quality goods at what you pay, when you can just step into the family clothing store of your own town, namely, Brill & Co., and get the best possible value obtainable under the present conditions? Our styles are varied and always up to date.
Our Winter Stock is now complete. Come in and look around. We are always ready to give you honest, courteous and efficient service.
Have a reminder of some of the things we have to sell:
