AT THE TURN OF THE ROAD

Where the rough road turns and the valley sweet,
Smiles bright with hain and bloom,
We'll forget the thorns that have pierced the feet,
And the nights with grief and gloom,
And the sky will smile and the stars will beam,
And we'll lay us down in the light and dream.

We shall lay us down in the light and dream,
With a prayer and a tear for rest,
As tired children who creep at night,
To the love of a mother's breast,
And for all the grief of the stormy past,
Rest shall be sweeter at last, at last.

Sweetest because of the weary way
And the long night and long,
While the darkness drifts to the perfect day
With its splendor of light and song.

The light that shall bless us and kiss and love us,
And sprinkle the roses of heaven above us.

Obituary

Mrs. NINIAN LINDSAY

This county lost one of its elect ladies when death called Mrs. Ninian Lindsay on Tuesday morning. It will be remembered that about seven weeks ago, while visiting her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Lindsay, at their residence just east of town, this sweet old lady suffered from a stroke, and in falling in her room sustained a fracture of the thigh. She pulled from the stroke and was bright and pleasant, but her aged frame finally gave way and she peacefully fell asleep on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Lindsay was the daughter of the late James Rutherford and was born at Edinburgh, Scotland, eighty-eight years ago. With her parents she came to Acton when a lassie of seven. The family settled on the farm owned now by Firstbrook Brothers and known as the Trout Pond. From this farm she married a husband, the late Ninian Lindsay, in 1856. They settled on the seventh line where her son, James R. Lindsay, now resides, and for between forty and fifty years lived a happy and useful life together there with their families. About the close of last century Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay retired from the activities of the farm. They first went to Milton, but about a year later removed to Georgetown. On August 11, 1901, Mr. Lindsay died. Mrs. Lindsay and her daughter, Christina, continued to reside in Georgetown. Two sons and two daughters were born in this godly home, Ninian Flockert, who owns and for many years has lived on the Alex Brown farm; James Rutherford, who resides on the homestead; Christina Loudon, who lived with her mother, and a little daughter of two or three years, who died in 1874. Mrs. Lindsay was a fine type of Christian womanhood; a true wife and mother of the home; an earnest worker in the church and friend to all in the community. She was beloved by all. During her illness here she was ministered to with loving solicitude and everything was done to make her last days peaceful and comfortable. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and interment was made in the family plot at the Limehouse Church, where the deceased was a faithful member for many years.—Free Press.

CHARLES HALL

Charles Hall, clerk and treasurer of the township of Trafalgar, died suddenly at a meeting of the Oakville Council on Monday evening of last week. The deceased had been failing in health for some time, but was not prevented from attending to his public duties. Mr. Hall was born sixty-one years ago near Oakville, and has spent all his life in this part of the country. For twenty-two years he was clerk of the township of Trafalgar and had been treasurer for thirteen years. He conducted a general store at Postville for many years. Of late years Mr. Hall took a great interest in the poultry business. He is survived by his widow, two sons and one daughter. The funeral was held at the Methodist Church, Clarkson, where interment was made. Prof. W. G. Smith officiated.

One-time Wood Protests

The Durham Review says that about $2,000,000 has been paid out for wood cuttings used in South Grey during this season. Transactions are measured by thousands, not hundreds of dollars, and instances not a few are found where farmers who had but poor success in cereals are now pocketing thousands from the returns of this one-time wood.

Fall Assizes

The Fall assizes opened at the Court House, Milton, on Monday afternoon, November 17th, before Judge Maston of Toronto. There were no cases tried. An Austrian from Acton, through his solicitor, applied for naturalization papers, which will be granted as soon as peace terms have been signed by his native country. The case of the Queen vs. Dr. Motherall, Burlington, who is held in a serious charge, but who has been out on a $2,000 cash bail, was traversed the next court of competent jurisdiction, but for some amount being accepted for his appearance at the trial.—Reformer.

Money in Clover Seed

"Rob Roy," a well known Halton farmer in a recent article, furnishes the following:
"For illustration, an ordinary Halton farmer starts from an ordinary Halton farm with what is in that district an ordinary load of produce, for which he is to receive a cheque of over two thousand dollars. This is only a side line, having grown on a ten-acre field, some thirty or hundred-acre farm. Many alike fields are this year giving a return of over $200 per acre.
I here give a list of only a few who have sold their clover seed in the following:
Steelesville during the last few weeks, $2500 coming from just a few square miles of country. Some are too modest to have their names published, so I give just initials: G. Hamilton and son, $1000, alike and sweet clover; Fred Ingram, $5000; G. McMillan, $3000; King Bros., $2500; C. Thompson, $2200; J. Wagner, $1950; H. A. C., $2001; R. O., $1700; A. C., $1400; W. McB., $1894; E. B., $1687; J. B., $2250; L., $1580; (last) J. B., $500; $295; G. H., $1900; J. C., $1800.

POPPING A RAISIN or two into a bottle of two and a half per cent. beer or adding a little yeast to some innocuous liquid and allowing it to work itself up to the point where it can produce trouble with the police, is an offence against the Inland Revenue Act and may land these gentlemen in difficulties.

One of these days it may be recorded, at "unofficial" generally, that, by their finger-prints, we had known them. A national system of finger-prints is the latest suggestion for the well-being of society. It being agreed that such means of identification should not be given to criminals, but would be invaluable generally for preventing forgery and mistaken identity, as well as constituting an infallible manner of identifying subjects.

THE VETERAN, the official paper of the G.W.A., sizes up matters about night when it says: "When highwaymen of the road stage a robbery of some seventy thousand dollars the police and detective forces of two provinces are loosed on their trail, but rewards are offered for their capture, and a real man-hunt is conducted. When highwaymen of commerce 'put by' a profit-making deal which takes toll from every widow in the country, and runs into hundreds of thousands of dollars, 'society' extends the 'glad hand' and bemoans the fact that titles have been abolished." Profiteers would undoubtedly soon find their level if the authorities got after them with the same vim as they do after the ordinary common place robber.

ONE WOMAN has already declared that there has been a great improvement in farm conditions, since the women got the vote. The cows were giving more and richer milk, the hens were laying larger eggs, the pigs were cutting down on the squeal and adding to their avoirdupois, the hired man was acquiring the habit of getting up at the first call instead of sleeping half the morning away and not being in bed until 4 a.m., the milk in the bin were sorting over the grain and eating only the cull stuff, the windmill runs with a less amount of wind, it takes fewer apples to make a barrel of cider, listeners on the rural telephone find the gossip juicier, the water in the creek doesn't get so muddy after a rain, and so on and so on right through one concession after another.

A LARGER NUMBER of veterans of the army and navy have sent in a protest to their District Headquarters against the indiscriminate wearing of the King's uniform in public places against the wearing of symbols of service, wounded stripes, etc., by those not entitled to wear them. Recently young boys, young girls and women have been wearing service badges, ribbons, etc., without realizing what those articles represent. The veterans say that the indiscriminate wearing of these badges of service tends to belittle the individual who alone may be allowed to wear them, and adversely reflects on the legitimate veteran. They ask the attention of the public to be called to this matter and their co-operation requested that the King's uniform be worn only by those who have authority to wear it and only on suitable occasions, and, secondly, that the wearing of service badges, ribbons, wounded stripes, etc., by those who have not seen service, cease.
