The Georgetown Herald
Wednesday Ev'g, Jan. 7th, 1920
THE COUNTY COUNCIL acted wisely in making grants to the Fall Pairs. Indeed we believe there would be no reason for criticism if those were somewhat increased.
IT'S ESQUEWING'S turn for the Wardenship this year. Reeve Standish is entitled to that honor and we have no doubt his colleagues in County Council will see that he gets it.
A HERALD reader writes: "Many people are wondering what action is being taken to provide a memorial for the boys who fell in the great war as well as a permanent record of those who went and were spared to return. Have you a bronze tablet in the wall of the town hall answer the purpose? The cost would be from $600 to $1000."
NOW THAT it's all over, and the ratapans have expressed their wishes, let us all settle down together and work with a will for a Greater Georgetown. There is lots of work for each one to do, and to reach the desired haven the co-operation of everyone is required. Let this be our motto: "Let differences be forgotten. There are problems enough ahead without trying to remember the mistakes of the past."

The Farmers' Paper Twice a Week
The Farmers' Sun is to be enlarged and improved and to be published as a semi-weekly. This move to supply the Ontario farmers with a paper of their own more frequently than weekly, will be appreciated not only by readers of the Farmers' Sun but by farmers generally.
This is a move in the right direction and will enable Sun subscribers to keep better posted on the live stock and other markets, which are of great importance to all having stock or produce to sell, as well as to those desiring to purchase feed or other commodities. In addition, each issue will contain accurate and full information, political and general, up to the hour of going to press. No other farm paper will equal the Farmers' Sun in the service rendered to its readers.
When you subscribe for a farm paper, subscribe for The Farmers' Sun, owned by the farmers and published for the interests of the Ontario farmers. The subscription price of twice-a-week Sun is only $1.50 per year or 8 years for $4.00. No well-wisher of the farmers' movement should be without The Sun.

Presentation
A very enjoyable test was given last Saturday afternoon by the ladies of the Bowling Club at the home of Mrs. J. J. Allen. The guest of honor being Miss Gertrude Glassey, whose marriage to Mr. Le Roy Dale, our popular Reeve, is to take place to-day.
Miss Glassey was made the recipient of a very handsome Electric Table Lamp. The presentation being made by Mrs. John Allen, the President of the Club. The following address being read by Mrs. Jessie Henderson.
Dear Miss Glassey—We have been hearing very pleasant and delightful rumors lately, about two of our fellow bowlers, and thought, through the summer months we have had many bright and happy matches on the bowling green, still, all these enjoyable matches put together are not to be compared with the happy match that is to take place in the near future.
We are gathered together this afternoon to express our great joy in honoring of this coming happy event. There is only one regret and that is, that more of the bowlers could not be in "The Match". But, as we understand it is only for the Champion Bowler of Canada and his choice of a partner, we will have to remain contented with the honor and pleasure of having the participants in this match, members and very popular members of our Bowling Club.
Miss Gertrude, the ladies of the Bowling Club wish to extend to you every good wish possible for your future happiness and wish you every comfort and joy that can be bestowed upon you in your future home. If your partner in life enjoys your company in the days to come as much as we have in the days past, on the bowling green, we feel perfectly sure he has every prospect of many happy days ahead of him. Not only in howling have we found you pleasant to meet, but in the business way, we have always found you extremely obliging and pleasant.
In your choice of a partner in this coming event, we cannot say too much. One who can win the Championship of Canada in Bowling, win the Cup of the Ontario Province and win the hand of one of our most popular young ladies, all in so short a period of time, must be a very energetic, progressive and clever man.
As you have been a very bright and shining light in our Bowling Club, we wish to present you with this Electric Lamp as a slight token of our esteem for you, hoping it may shed forth, through its shining light, rays of good wishes to you and your partner by.
