Del-Glassy

Very quietly, December 7th, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Glassey, the marriage was solemnized by her only daughter, Ella Gertrude to Mr. LeRoy Dale, both of Georgetown. Rev. Wray L. Davidson performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate friends. The bride who was attired in an exquisite gown of pale blue silk Georgette crepe and lace over satin, with bouquet of orchids and sweetheart roses, was given away by her brother, Mr. J. W. Glassey. She was attended by Miss Lyla Armstrong, wearing maize silk Georgette crepe with bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums, while Dr. Keith Milne of Toronto, supported the groom as best man. Miss Margaret and Doris Glassey, nieces of the bride, wore flower girls and carried silver baskets of roses and sweet peas. During the signing of the register, Miss Gladys McWhirter played while Mr. W. Hoop sang "Prom-ise Me." After a daintily prepared dinner Mr. and Mrs. Dale left on the 6:30 train amid showers of confetti and hostess of good wishes. The bride travelled in a gray tailor-cut suit, rose and ermine hat and ermine fur.

By Joining the Georgetown Board of Trade?

$1200.00 REQUIRED TO ADVERTISE

During 1919 your Board, with a small membership, worked efficiently in your interests. Their advertising has resulted in bringing Georgetown's advantages to the attention of many American and British firms contemplating the erection of Canadian branch factories, as well as manufacturing firms in Canada looking for better sites, or new Companies organizing. Hundreds of branch factories are under contemplation at the present time and Georgetown can only get her share through

Aggressive and Judicious Advertising

TO THIS END your Board of Trade is of the firm belief that Georgetown's citizens will supply the necessary funds, in which all will reap the benefit.

On January 22nd and 23rd a canvass will be made when you are respectfully urged, as an enterprising citizen, to join this Board and through it take an active interest in town affairs.

REMEMBER!

Georgetown Will Be What You Make It.
