THE VOICE

By Clare Shipman.
God speaks to us in so many ways—In the still, small voice in the quiet days;
In tears of mourners, and songs of praise;
He speaks to us in the flush of the spring;
His voice is glad when the happy birds sing;
The flowers murmur of a love overall;
The grass bends low as it whispers His call;
A gentle whispering among the leaves Tells of life eternal to him who believes.
But sometimes in the darkness of the night He speaks quickly, in flashes of light.
And the earth bows down and trembles in fear
When the voice of thunder smiteth her ear,
And the people shudder and pray in dread
When the lightning flashes above their head.
But the angels we fear the thunder rolls,
And can hear God's silence to search our souls; Oh teach us, Thou strong One behind the storm, That Thou dost protect from every harm;
And help us to feel that Thou art near,
In our deepest joy and our darkest fear.

The Need for It

The need for a Forward Movement of some kind was never more apparent than it is to-day. Missionary work is needed both at home and abroad. At home to call the people from materialism and the pursuit of pleasure to higher conceptions of duty. Abroad to carry the light of true Christian teaching into the dark places of the earth.
Take the work at home first.
The larger cities of Canada have doubled in population within a very few years. There is an infinite difference between the problems of a big town and those of a big city. Generally the population of a big town is homogeneous, of a big city, varied and polyglot. Slum and slum are the result of overcrowding.
For four years past building has been at a standstill; therefore, the demand for houses is abnormal.
Therefore, also, the tenement districts need more careful supervision. The church has a great task waiting for them in the cities —and inadequate means, both of men and money, to deal with it.
While the cities have increased, there has been a continuing depopulation of rural areas. Education and hope for the rural problem by consolidated schools.
Churchmen have a difficulty even more thorny than that of the school men. They must adjust their country program to the special needs of the community. The Home Mission field has changed greatly in the last few years. There are colonies of new settlers in the West who lack the ministry of religion. Many mining towns have sprung up. Immigrants have come in thousands from the United States and have built many towns. Many of these are not served by the church—again for lack of men and money.
Something is vitally wrong with the national order when we see the ministers of our churches and teachers in our schools paid less salaries than those earned by unskilled manual labor. Even the miserable stipends of ministers are not always paid. It is not surprising that young men are turning away from the church to other walks of life that offer more adequate financial recompense.
Turning to the work in the foreign mission field we find conditions even worse. The people are more cordial towards Christianity than ever before. Yet there has been a special lack of men and money to carry on the work. The colleges are faced with financial difficulties owing to the rise in price of all materials, the lack of students, who donned the khaki, and the necessity of increasing professors' salaries.
Salaries of missionaries, too, are insufficient and the only surprise is that devoted men and women can still be found who are willing to undertake the difficult and often dangerous work for the sake of the Master's service. These things, however, cannot be remedied except through a change in the attitude of the people and a return to the old and well-tried methods whose efficacy unchanged, however much they may be modified to meet changing conditions. They rest on the plain gospel of Jesus Christ exemplified in practice and action, in service and in the performance of duty carried out, not merely by the professional ministry, but by the rank and file of professionary Christians. This is the justification of the Forward Movement in the churches, and on the strength of the religious fervor of the people will depend the success of the Forward Movement.

Smallpox in Canada

So far nearly forty cases of small-pox have been reported in Canada.
They are of a very mild type. It is said the Warden and Treasurer Alton every man with whom a woman from Toronto danced was taken down with the disease.

Lyness-Brownbridge

A very pretty wedding was so-lennized at Brandon, Man., on January 7th, when Margaret May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F.
Brownbridge 224 12th St., was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Harrison Lyons, of North Brandon, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Lyons, 9th St.
Rev. Harold Salton of North Brandon officiated.

On the arm of her father the bride entered the drawing-room to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, played by Mrs.
Austin Brownbridge, sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white Pussy Willow Ta-feta and Georgette crepe prettily embroidered in crystal beads and a silver giraffe, she wore a regulation veil with many blossoms and a shower bouquet of white carnations, her only ornament was a pearl lavalier, the gift of the groom, to the pianist the groom gave a gold bar pin set with pearls.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served in the dining room which was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations and amilax, after which Mr. and Mrs. Lyon left for Winnipeg and points east, where they are spending their honeymoon.

The bride traveled in a tailored suit of brown broadcloth and wore a smart velvet chin chin hat to match, beaver furs completed her costume. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Lyons will take up residence on their farm, North Brandon.

OLD FRIENDS

Old friends are best!
Old friends, old hearts, old faces That haunt the memory of the passing years,
And seem to dwell among deserted places, Improving us for all our nameless fears.

Old friends are best!
The roses softly blowing Close by the floor, they always seem to say
"Old friends are best," although we're knowing Where they are faring at the close of day.

Old friends are best!
Remember the memory clinging, Brings back the faces that we need to know,
And in the winter of the heart is ringing
The songs we loved, so many years ago.

Old friends are best!
When autumn twilight falling Brings back the faces that we need
to know,
I seem to hear their vibrant voices calling, Although I know—I know they are not there.
