WednesJay Evg. Feb. 4th, 1920 Forward ...

THIS week many of our reader will be eatled upon for contribu tions in intherance of the aims and objects of the Forward Movement.

These objects are worthy, let the response be large and hearty. The aims of the five denomin stions concerned; Anglican, Baptist, Congregationalist, Methodis and Presbyterian are religious in ful enemies who were waiting for their nature, and mostly mission ary. They are for the carrying out of the real work of Christianity, the spread of the Glad News to the remotest corners of the earth. The growth of Christian missions cational and forestry policies of the during the past century has been Government. notable, but it has not been nearly so great nor so rapid as it might the churches had been thoroughly imbued with the principles that they profess. The churches are making a new start. Let them have the great mass of the membership behind them. Let them go forward in the great work committed to them. Forward into battle see His ban-
