Election next Monday
—St. Valentine's Day next Saturday.

—Owing to the election next Monday the Hydro Office will be closed all day except from 7 to 8 p.m.

—No matter how much good luck a man may have he always manages to have a little bad luck to break the monotony.

—Tell a child that she is good, a man that he is great, and a woman that she is beautiful, and they will applaud your judgment.

—Be as easy as you can on your water supply. The long steady cold weather has been long on the supply coming into the reservoir.

—Owing to sickness in town the Minstrel show has postponed their entertainment for two or three weeks. Watch for announcement of dates in the near future.

—At the Public School Board meeting last night the teaching staff were given a substantial increase in salary. Minutes of the meeting will appear next issue.

—Erin Agricultural Society reports for last year, including balance from 1919, were $2,472.25, and the total expenditure $1,618.16, leaving a balance on hand of $854.09.

—Mr. Fred Cook has just returned from Oshawa where he secured a bunch of new Chevrolet cars which he will sell at the old price. Also some new McLaughlins.

—Among the visiting Masons who attended the funeral of the late John J. Allen last week were Mr. Cole of Bombay, India, and Mr. J. P. Stubbs of Palmerston North, New Zealand.

—The Oddfellows Athletic Association held a successful "at home" and dance in the town hall last Friday evening. Jones' Jazz Band supplied the music and everybody present had a good time.

—Baker Beans and Brown Bread. We supply the Brown Bread every day now. Leaders for Friday and Saturday this week Straw berry tarts, Lemon tarts and coffee-cakes. R. V. Gibbens, Main St. Next Radial station.

—At a depth of 110 feet, drillers have struck a strong flow of oil and gas on the farm of Ben Doran, four and one-half miles from Meaford. It is believed that both gas and oil in quantities will be found when the drillers go further.

—The new painless anesthetic just discovered is said to have the faculty of making the subject relate the true story of the past life. This does it to failure from the start. Not many men, and shall we say women, will care to be at the mercy of such a truth forcing agency when they don't know what they are saying.

—A telegram from Pangman, Sask., announces the death of Mr. Donnan McKeechnie. Donnan was born in Chintawacouy over sixty years ago. For a number of years he farmed at Claude. He began the study of law in the office of his brother, the late Arch. McKeechnie, Brampton, and after graduating went west.

—In January maintained its record of being the coldest January since 1887, if not the coldest recorded. The closing day, the mercury reported from 30 to 35 below, according to thermometers. Sunday was not quite so cold. Monday, Candlemas Day, was a fine, sunshiny, spring like day and the bear and the groundhog crept back to their dens for another long sleep. Tuesday was bright but colder and yesterday was quite raw and cold.

Glenwilliams

The citizens of Glenwilliams were disappointed last Thursday night, when they heard that the big hockey match was called off owing to sickness, Georgetown vs the Glen. We hope to see this game in the near future.

There is a bumper ice crop this year. Next year, be a bumper food.

Water Users Be Careful!

The Council have appointed a water inspector who has power to shut off services where water is being used for anything other than a long term of imprisonment. Judge Cotswortin in the Sessions at Toronto last week sent two youths to the Jail Farm for five days and there to be soundly whipped.

The pair admitted having broken into a shop of Fanning Street and stolen two loaves.

Must Get 1920 License

Motorists are warned that Monday, February 9, was the time limit for using last year's motor vehicle markers. As a matter of fact the time for license plates is terminated on January 1 this year, but an extension of nearly six weeks has been allowed to permit motorists to obtain the 1920 plates. Summonses will be issued to offenders who are caught using the 1919 license plates.

Mr. J. J. Allen's Funeral

The funeral of the late J. J. Allen took place at Greenwood Cemetery last Wednesday afternoon and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Worshipful Master W. A.
