What Cash You Need When Travelling

—and more particularly, when large sums are required—is best carried in the form of a Letter of Credit, issued by The Merchants Bank.
This old established form of international banking is preferred by many experienced travellers because of its absolute security.
Letters of Credit are cashed only by banks or banking corporations, and after the identity of the holder is established to the satisfaction of the bank officials. This insures safety, and guards against loss and theft.

A HYMN FOR THESE TIMES

"Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done."—Matt. 6: 10.
Father, to The we turn,
For Thee our spirits yearn.
O help us now to learn And do Thy will.
Blest Saviour in her need, Thy Church's welfare heed, And give her grace to heed Thy word and will.
O bid her forward go,
Thy truth and love to show,
That all the earth may know Thy blessed will!
From East to Western shore,
Bring in Thy reign of peace, Thy mercy may love Thee more, Through good and ill.
Bid strife and discord cease,
Bring in Thy reign of peace,
Make righteousness increase, Thy word fulfil.
Great Spirit, hear our prayer, Renold us in Thy care,
And shed forth, everywhere, Peace and goodwill.
—Bishop Reeves.

—In one of the Toronto schools a teacher asked the class: "Of what use is a windmill on a farm?" The reply of a boy was: "To keep the hired man cool."

Farmers' Bank

On Tuesday of last week a meeting of representatives of the de-positors in all branches of the defunct Farmers Bank was held at the Walker House, Toronto. It was unanimously decided to forward a petition to the Premier and members of the House of Commons, asking that the necessary legislation be passed by Parliament at the coming session to reimburse the depositors for their losses. A committee composed of the following will take charge of the petition: Rev. George Gilmour, Ripley; Rev. C. F. Clark, Barrie;
John G. Ashmore, Dundas; A. L.
Matheson, Oakwood; W. H. H.
Elliott, Brantford. The amount involved is $1,800,000. L. E.
Weldon, of Lindsay, solicitor for the Depositors' Relief Committee, explained that the relief measure introduced by the Finance Minister in 1914 was passed by the Commons and defeated by the Senate.
Sir Robert Borden had promised to reintroduce the bill at the following session, but the war broke out in the meantime, and the de-positors felt it would not be patriotic to push the matter at that time. "This is not a question of a bounty or a gift, but it is a just debt due by the people of Canada," said Mr. Weldon, who charged the Government with neglecting its obligation on the part of the Treasury Board in issuing a certificate to the bank. R. H. Halbert, M.P., promised his support in the matter.
If there had been no "House of Refuge," he believed, the de-positors would have had satisfaction long ago. "It is the Government's business, not the Senate's, to see the people get their money. You come to Ottawa and I will try to see that you are not used as the farmers were on the last occasion." It has been indicated," said Mr. Matheson, of Oakwood, a U.E.O. organizer, "that there is a power behind the throne. Whoever that power may have been, it is to-day the U.F.O., for I have learned that 76 per cent. of the de-positors are now members of the U.F.O." A resolution was adopted asking that future expenses in the fight of the depositors be paid by the liquidator instead of by the depositors personally. Halton is heavily interested in the move for reimbursement, perhaps more so than any other country. A large amount was deposited in the Milton and Norval branches of the bank.

THEY "LISTENED IN"
The practice of "listening in" on rural lines does more, perhaps, than any other to lessen the usefulness of the telephone to the farmer and his household.
Upholding the action of the Sandwich West Telephone company in removing telephone equipment from the home of Albert Melchoe because, it was claimed, members of the family had "listened in" on party lines, Justice of the Peace Joseph White, at Sandwich, Thursday, January 22nd, dismissed a writ brought by Melchoe against the company.
Testimony of 27 witnesses was heard before a decision was reached. Some of the witnesses told the court the Melchoe family had interrupted calls on party lines, during which strong language was used.
The court held that Melchoe had violated the company's rules in allowing his family to intrude on busy lines.

They Have Disappeared
Where are all those weather predictors who assured us that this would be a mild and open winter?
In the fall one fellow said the pig's liver opens it all out, that the cold days would be few and far apart, another equally good prognosticator said that the animals far was thin, still another made similar predictions because the squirrels did not store up food, etc. All these liars have crawled under the bed—Exchange.
Not Good Business
It isn't good business to expect something for nothing, yet most newspaper offices, we presume, have a class among them that are often or always looking for free advertising. A person has no right to expect free advertising when a newspaper man has to expect a merchant to give him a pound of tea or a bar of soap for nothing.
The publisher of a newspaper has to make his living from 8 sources of income: subscriptions, advertising and job work. When he gives away one or the other of these he is giving away part of his living.
The individual or the society who seeks publicity through a newspaper is doing so with the expectation of getting something in return has a right to pay for the service.
Wallington Pioneer Dead Elizabeth Ann Strange, the oldest resident in Rockwood district, died February 8, aged 96 years, six months. She was the widow of Col. Henry Strange. Mrs. Strange was born in London, England, and came to Canada when ten years of age, and settled in Guelph. When 17 she married Col. Strange and lived 8 miles from Guelph, where is now the village of Rockwood.
She has seen the village and surrounding country develop to its present prosperous stage. She was a very public spirited woman, and her last act for the municipality was the official turning on of Hydro power here a few years ago.
Of her 14 children 6 survive. Her husband, who died in 1869, was a member of the 1st Regiment, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario.

Married in haste, Repented in haste A young woman 21 years of age, daughter of a returned soldier named Lyons, who is now in hospital, has interviewed Police Magistrate Dice. She told Mr. Dice that on January 1st, a Nantawaway woman persuaded her to marry Amos Gardner, a man whom she had never seen until that day. A license was got in Milton, the ceremony performed by an Esquimaux minister and the girl has never lived with her husband. Gardner is a widower, aged about 37 and has four small children, all of them wards of the Children's Aid Society. The girl said Gardner had been trying to force her to live with him and threatened her with trouble if she refused. The P.M. told her Gardner could make no serious legal trouble, but she could get no relief except by divorce.—Milton Champion.

What the Preacher Said While the editor of a certain newspaper was away from home awhile, he left the paper in charge of a minister of the gospel. During the minister's stay in the office the following letter came from a subscriber: "I know very well that I paid my subscription to your paper the last time I was in your office. If I got any more letters from you as I received last week I will come in and mail— out of you." The minister answered the note like this: "I have been trying to get that out of the editor for the last ten years, and if you will come down and haul it out of him then, my dear sir, I have twenty members of my church I will let you oprate on.—Exchange.

Notes and Comments

CANADA, it is gratifying to note, is getting a better class of immigrants now that more discretion being used in the class admitted.
During 1919 some 117,888 persons were admitted, 67,898 more than in 1918. It is notable that all but 8,818 of the 117,888 who came last year are from the British Isles and the United States. The care exercised in inspecting immigrants as to their suitability is shown in the fact that nearly 91,000 persons refusing to settle in Canada were refused admission.

ACCORDING to Sir George Paish there is little else to expect but a bad time ahead for himself in general. Death, famine, hunger and pestilence appears to be the only things that have been brought to most. We only hope and trust that Paish will prove the false prophet so many other good men have been, whose predictions were found to be untrue in past instances. War has provided steady employment at high wages, and if it has also brought about a higher cost of living the latter is not altogether undesirable for the accompaniment of the other blessings. It will be well to keep an eye on the storm clouds that are hovering about, but there is no call to be too pessimistic.

THE SUCCESS of the United Farmers of Ontario at the polls last October, which was out of proportion to the number of their members, has stimulated the organization of farmers clubs. During the last three months fully one hundred new branches of the U.F.O. have been formed, with close on to 6,000 members. At present the number of U.F.O. members is not more than one-third of the total number of Ontario. The voting strength of the U.F.O. probably will always be much stronger than its membership would indicate.
Eustachius in the last report has been convinced that there is another election in Ontario made necessary at an early date, the U.F.O. would elect at least a dozen more members than it has in the present Legislature.
