The Ontario Government road program looks good, and will undoubtedly meet with the support of the municipalities affected.

The symptoms are that Georgetown will secure just as many mills (on the dollar) this year as the rest of the municipalities of Ontario.

The Misses Claridge will hold their Spring Millinery Opening on Saturday, March 18th, and following days. Parlors up-stairs in Herald Block.

If those in authority would take an occasional look into the Merchants Bank rest rooms they might be able to solve the whereabouts of absentees from school.

Judge Elliott has not been well for a week, confined to his house, but not to his bed. He hopes to be out very soon. He has been forced to adjourn the Division Court sittings which he was to have held throughout the county during this week. When the new dates have been fixed they will be announced.—Milton Champion, March 8th.

"How do you tell the date of Easter?" is asked. Generally, to be candid, by looking at the calendar. Another way is to remember that Easter is the first Sunday after the full moon which happens on or next after the 21st of March and if the full moon happens on a Sunday, Easter Day is the Sunday after. This year Easter Sunday falls on April 4th.

Dr. Smith told me to-day that candy is really a food if its eaten properly, said Mrs. Singleton to Mrs. Cranley. Yes, replied Mrs. Cranley, we learned that through the war. You know our boy Johnnie was over there. Dr. Smith said we should serve candy after dessert at every meal, and that we should use only the best candy. Oh! said Mrs. Cranley we always buy our candy at Hourigan's Drug Store.

Thirteen Weeks of Winter
Sunday completed thirteen weeks of straight winter. Or the straight has set ever known to any resident in these parts; not a rainfall, not a thaw, and nine weeks of a snow covered earth; also zero as the prevailing record of the thermometer, and still going strong. Spring is not dated in the calendar until March 21, two weeks away. But winter set in three weeks ahead of almanac.

Wallington Pioneer Dead
There died at Rockwood, Ontario, on Sunday, March 7th, one of the few remaining pioneers of the county, Alexander Burns, aged 77. He was successful in mixed farming and in the raising of pure-bred Shorthorn cattle. He was twice married, first to Sarah Hill, a cousin of the late James J. Hill, the railroad builder; second to Catherine Ferguson, daughter of an early pioneer who survives him. The interment took place in Everton Cemetery.
