McPHERSON'S PRAYER

Guid Lord, ye'll hear our prayer,
And send us fair, dry weather,
While my ain brither Neil and me
Are making hay together.

And Lord, when a our hay is home,
(Thanks be we hae a power),
To start the aftergrass along
Send down a good warm shower.

Ye'll hae a lot o' prayers, na doot,
O' ain kind hand the tither,
Frae those lang-legged Mathiesons,
And Ross o' Murray River.

Gie to them mair attention, Lord:
They be carnal minded shavers,
And make ye muckle trouble, aye,
Be askin' many favors.

Sin' thines be me for yir ear,
Yir work is o'er great,
To listen to the Mathiesons
And a' such blitherers' prate.

But me and brither Neil, ye ken,
Hae reverence and fear,
And come na to yir courts, O Lord,
Scarce more than alms a year.

And while yir lookin' down on us
Twa sons of toil and evil,
Scourge well the city boarders, Lord,
The potato bugs and weevil.

But save us frae those maladies
Thou sendest on the rich,
Sin' heathen ill is grip and gout—
We dinna mind the itch.

—From Abewit.

This Is For You

YOU are interested in the High Cost of Living.

Suppose you had to replace your house or the contents of it and buy everything over again.

YOU would need double as much money to do it as in September, 1914.

Everything has gone up. The purchasing power of the dollar is about 47c compared with September, 1914.

Building costs of all kinds have nearly doubled; clothing is going up every day; boots and shoes, furniture, curtains, carpets, food, fuel—everything costs more.

Fire may destroy your entire property any minute. Your $1000.00 policy today won't buy half that it would three years ago. So you need more insurance.

One thing in the world has not increased in cost—that is insurance—the thing you need most.

In short, what you most need is the cheapest thing you can buy—Protection.

You need the best kind of protection too. You can have it. The best costs no more than the worst.

Phone me how much more cover you require and we will put it on to-day, or we will call, value your property and give you the necessary protection.
