THEY DO NOT REGRET

GERMAN PROFESSORS BLAME TO OBVIOUS FACTS. Teutonic Scholars Who Signed Peace Document Accusing the Allies of Starting the War Still Believe That Their Country Was Victim of Gigantic Plot, or at Least Most of Them Profess to Do So.

ONE of the most astonishing documents of the war, apart from the various official reports, was that signed by the leading university professors in Germany in 1914 affirming their absolute confidence in the actions of the German Government...

Of the fifty-five who replied, thirty-seven are found to accept the error of their ways. Some of them excuse their original attitude by asserting that the rest of the statement for which their signatures were sought was not presented to them until after it had been made public...

He says: "Whether you take the question of the origin of the war, or of Belgian neutrality, or of the many questions touched upon in that document, the statements made regarding them may well be called the final verdict of history. He offers to draw up a list of books which will prove his right, but it seems superfluous to do so."
