In The Interest of Church Going

What is the cure for capitalism and laborism and materialism and jingoism and red bolshevism and race antipathy and all the unruly ambitions and desires that tease and bedevil mankind?

The same remedy for all, self-government under one's own hat, self-government based on realization that the highest office is to serve and that the door of happiness is love. That is religion and patriotism and the road to true civilization and real progress. Self-respect, self-control and self-abnegation are the bases of character, and it is on character, human character, that the world must depend. Let's all get busy and make some character. It is not a factory product and never will be. It is made day by day in the little world under one's hat.

Your church will stimulate and inspire you in this great task. Attend church service and you will be glad.

Statements Delayed

Under the Ontario Elections Act every candidate in a provincial election is required to file with the Returning Officer, within two months after polling day, a statement of his expenses, for publication. The two months from the date of last February's by-election in Halton expired last Friday without a statement either of the candidates, Premier Drury and E. J. Stephenson, having reached the Returning Officer. He is expected to receive Mr. Stephenson's figures next morning. They are published in this issue of the Champion, showing expenses of $5440. Later Mr. Stephenson was informed that the Premier's expenses were $152, but it had not been possible to make up an itemized statement because several parties to whom money was due had failed to send in their accounts. It is not likely that there will be enforcement of the penalty in either case. As a rule such fines are imposed only in cases of wilful neglect and disobedience. The penalty for neglect is $25 for every day's default.—Milton Champion.

The Annual General meeting of the Industrial Accident Prevention Association will be held in the Association's offices, 802 Excelsior Life Building, Toronto, on Tuesday, May 4th, 1920, at 10.30.

I have lived in Georgetown for five years and I would like all the people of Georgetown to please sell me their spring goods when they are housecleaning. I am willing to pay from 40 to 50 a pound for rags and a high price for everything. I buy rubbers, bottles, old tea kettles, boilers and carpets, second-hand clothes, second-hand men's boots, second-hand bags and sacks, old stoves and all kinds of old iron. I pay the highest price. Something different from other pedlars. Buy old newspapers, books and magazines.

GIVE VOTES TO ALL ADULTS IN MUNICIPAL MATTERS

One of the most important franchise measures since the Hearst Government extended the Provincial franchise to women, was introduced in the House by Hon. F. C. Biggs. Under the bill which received its first reading, the Government recognizes the principle of partnership in a family in respect to freehold or leasehold municipal rights. In other words where the head of the family, either father or mother, own property or is a tenant of property, all other members of a family of age, whether sons or daughters, will have equal franchise rights.

The law is an extension of the principle adopted by the former Government in giving the franchise to the sons of farmers living at home, and the existing Bill will be repealed to make way for the broader measure. The Government takes the position of John Neelands, at the residence of his niece, Mrs. J. C. Ward, 800 Rusholme road. Deceased, who was born near Brampton, was in his 89th year. He formerly kept store at Norval, Charleston, Wingham and London, Ontario, from where he moved to Brantford. While in the latter place he was high treasurer of the Foresters for 22 years, and was always known as "Honest John." He had lived in Toronto for the past eleven years. He was a member of the Central Methodist Church, and up to a few years ago took an active part in Sunday school work. About a year ago his wife died in her 89th year. There are no children. A brother, Thomas of Stratford, survives.
