W.M.S. Resolution

At the sixth annual meeting of Ontario Women's Missionary Societies held at Stratford recently, the following resolution was passed:

"That we, the members of the Ontario Provincial W.M.S., express our strong disapproval of the senseless, indecent, immodest modes of dress adopted among so many of our women, even amongst the members of our churches and worn even in the house of God. We deplore the lack of modesty displayed in a most glaring way on the streets and especially at evening entertainments, because of its pernicious effects, believing that it lowers the standard of our womanhood, disgraces our sex, leads to gross immorality and is most serious to the health, especially that of our young girls.

We deplore the practice of teaching young children fancy dances in immodest dress, practically ballet dancing, on the plea of making them graceful, bringing them on the public stage on behalf of charitable objects and thus destroying all the sweet innocence of childhood. We also view with serious apprehension the alarming rapid growth of cigarette smoking amongst the women of our country, particularly in fashionable circles, and would urge upon all their parents and influence to combat these great evils threatening the moral life of our country, and set before their young people the fatal consequences of all these practices, and above all the great sin of bringing dishonor upon the sacred name and glory of our God and Saviour, Jesus Christ, who gave Himself a sacrifice for us."

—Remember Bert Johnston the great magician will be at the Rex Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, May 10th and 11th.
