Presentation to Mr. Foulis At the Provincial Paper Mills (Coating Division) on June 8th, a presentation was made to Mr. R. F. Foulis, who is now en route to the old country, accompanied by Mrs. Foulis and children, on a well deserved holiday. The present consisted of a four piece tea and coffee service of silver plate and was accompanied with the following address: Dear Mr. Foulis: "The employees of the P.P.M. Coating Division, have arranged among themselves a little presentation, which we herewith offer for your acceptance. The spirit of goodwill which is prompted by us, is the result of our association with you during the last five years during which period we have always found you distinctly human. You have overlooked lots of our little failings, tempered with us in a fair and upright manner, and succeeded in improving the lot of those who work under you. For these reasons we are unanimous in wishing yourself, wife and family a pleasant and enjoyable holiday and while you are enjoying the same we would like you to feel that the same friendly feeling, that exists for you now, will be waiting you on your return." The Employees. Mothersill - Lloyd On Monday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, 807 Brunswick Avenue, the wedding took place of Miss Isabel Lloyd, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. As the bride entered the drawing room, accompanied by her father and attended by little Miss Helen Lloyd, who acted as flower girl, the Wedding March was played by Mrs. Tracy B. Lloyd. The bride was simply but charmingly attired in a costume of French voile, hand embroidered, with veil of Brussels net and orange blossoms, and carried a showery bouquet of Orphelia roses and lilies of the valley.
