In The Interest of Church Going

ROOSEVELT'S POINTS ON CHURCH GOING 1. In this actual world, a churchless community, a community where men have abandoned and scoffed at or ignored their religious needs, is a community on the rapid down grade. 2. Church work and church attendance mean the cultivation of the habit of feeling some responsibility for others. 3. Yes, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the Creator in a grove of trees, or by a running brook, or in a man's own house just as well as in church. But I also know as a matter of fact that the average man does not thus worship. 4. He will listen to and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if he is not familiar with the Bible, he has suffered a loss. 5. He will take part in singing some good hymns. 6. He will meet and nod or speak to good, quiet neighbors. He will come away feeling a little more charitably toward all the world, even toward those occasionally foolish young men who regard churchgoing as a soft performance. 7. I advocate a man's joining in church work for the sake of showing his faith by his works.
