In Memoriam

ANTHONY—In sad and loving memory of Mary Cunningham, wife of James J. Anthony, who died September 12th, 1917. This day brings back sad memories. Of one who has gone to rest, And those who think of her today, Are those who loved her best. Three years have passed still we miss her, Never shall her memory fade, Loving hearts shall always linger, Around the grave where Mother is laid, Husband and Daughter.

DURING THIS MONTH of September the Fall Fairs flourish. The Esqueving Fall Fair, to be held at Georgetown, on the 29th and the 30th inst., will give fine opportunities for exhibiting and comparing notes on the products of the field, farm, garden, the home and sundry other interests. With such excellent crops this year there should be an abundance of entries of all kinds of farm produce, and keen competition in all of the classes. While the management may be energetic, the success of the Fair depends, after all, largely upon what the public puts into it. Exhibitors and spectators alike can all do much to make the Esqueving Fall Fair the success it deserves to be, and there should be absolute loyalty to this institution, which bring rural and urban residents into closer relationship. Unlike many other local fairs the Esqueving Fall Fair puts up no barriers. It's prize list is open to the world.

Glenwilliams.

After a very brief illness another old and highly respected citizen of Glenwilliams passed away at her home, on Tuesday, September 7th, in the person of Mrs. Mary Jane Brown, widow of the late Sergt. Nathaniel Brown, who preceded her several years ago. She was the daughter of Joseph Quinn and Sarah McMurray and was born in Castle Blaney, Co. Monaghan, Ireland, August 16, 1867. She was married in Manchester Cathedral, February 12th, 1868, and settled here in 1870, upon the retirement of Sergt. Brown from military life. Four daughters and three sons survive, all of whom were in attendance at the funeral held from her late residence to Glenwilliams Cemetery, on Thursday last.

Mrs. N. B. Shrimplin of Chicago has been visiting at her old home in Glenwilliams accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Paul Donoherty and baby Beth.

Mr. N. B. Brown, Mr. Thos. Brown and Mr. Chas. Brown all of Toronto attended the funeral of their mother last Thursday.

The Band with a number of lacrosse fans journeyed to Orangeville to see the St. Simons and Brampton teams play off their final game. Score St. Simons 8, Brampton 2. St. Simons showed superiority all the way through.

Quite a number from here took in the exhibition last week.

Mr. Fred Hill of Toronto is visiting his brother here Mr. T. J. Hill for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Christie and two daughters and Mr. and Mrs. C. Courtville and Mrs. Beck all of East Rochester visited friends and relatives here over the week-end.

Our hockey team are getting ready for next winter. Quite a number have already signed on and we expect to have an A1 hockey team.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Samuel McClure is getting better.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Sewell who has been bedfast for a considerable time is still quite ill.

Oakville Fair Next Week

The directors have arranged a great program for Oakville Fair on September 22, 23, 24 and 25, and with the elaborate prizes offered in every department there should be a great show, especially in live stock. The flowers, fruit and vegetables promise to be a wonderful display. Hon. Mr. Drury, Premier of Ontario, will open the fair on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The horse show section promises to be better than ever with steep-leashing and amateur racing as an added feature.

Engines Jump Track

When a freight train drawn by two large engines was pulling out of the yard here for the north, on Friday afternoon last, the engines left the rails, ploughed up the yard to considerable extent and were smashed considerably. Some freight cars were also thrown over the bank opposite Mrs. Day's food's property and badly smashed. No one was seriously injured. Traffic was delayed on the northern route about 24 hours.

Card of Thanks

Sincere thanks is herewith extended to the many friends in Glenwilliams and elsewhere for kindnesses and sympathy shown in our recent and bereavement in the death of our dear mother Mrs. M. J. Brown.

THE FAMILY

Norval

Mrs. J. C. McLaughlin left on Monday for Seaforth where she will visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Ferguson. Mr. McLaughlin will join her at the end of the week and they will take a motor trip through Western Ontario.

Rev. Mr. Patterson of Belfast, Ireland, has been given a call to Norval Presbyterian Church.

Rex Theatre Overhauled
Georgetown now has one of the neatest and most up-to-date picture theatres in this part of the province. The interior has been completely overhauled, new seating put in, new ventilation system, and the whole repainted. Mr. Gregory is deserving of much credit for his enterprise in providing the best accommodation and the highest class of pictures for the patronage of Georgetown Theatre. See his program for this week.
