The sermons were of a high order, being inspirational in the highest degree; the singing of the choirs reflected the greatest credit upon all concerned, whilst the decorations were particularly beautiful. Our Fall Fair

Big Exhibits Coming In—Many Entries in Races—Fine Weather Means a Record Fair

This is the first day of Esqueping Agricultural Society Fall Fair and as we go to press many exhibits are on the grounds and entries are still pouring in. President Hume Currie, Secretary J. A. Tracy, and the Directors were kept busy all morning looking after the exhibitors and arranging and placing displays in the hall which is well filled; in fact the exhibit eclipses anything seen heretofore in Halton.

With favorable weather Esqueping Fair of 1920 will be a record breaker. Come and bring your friends, see the splendid exhibits, enjoy the races and remain over for the grand concert in the town hall in the evening.

Glenwilliams

Some burglar or burglars entered one of four general stores twice recently. We understand the loss was not very great. Another Glen citizen had some parts of his car stolen.

St. Alban's church held their Harvest Home services last Friday evening and Sunday. Excellent sermons were delivered and the choir rendered appropriate music.

The young folks are enjoying some corn roasts these evenings. Mr. Andrew Wessler jr., has returned from his vacation in East Rochester.

Mrs. Jos. Allan has returned after spending a few days with relatives in London.

Glen citizens extend their sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Eicks in their recent and boyarneyment in the loss of their baby.

Some of the boys have returned from the West. Mr. Polkinghorne our general store keeper, is leaving here in a few days. Mr. J. Wheeler is taking the business over again. We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Polkinghorne as they have been good citizens. We all join in wishing them happiness and prosperity wherever they may go.
