Correspondence

Georgetown, Oct. 4, 1920 MR. EDITOR .- During the past month especially and for some time conditions in our village have W. A. McClure, 3 A. Hyde; best 2 been soing from bad to worse, and such action as has been taken is blind to those who desire Georgetown to be respected and a respectable place to live in. There are liquor dives in a num ber of places. The moral condition calls mmediate attention. Gambling has been uoing on for long time.

The young people to whom it more dangerous, know about these conditions. A great deal of it is penly talked about. In some cases it is past being "dangerous" station. $6000 to our young people. Considerable has been reported lately with names of all-concerned.

Without looking for any of it who has not seen too much? To those concerned let this be warning.

For those who are anxious, and every respectable citizen should be, and especially parents, neces sary steps will be promptly taken toward improvement.

It is one hundred times more important to make and keep Georgetown a respectable village than to incorporate it as a town and every individual should be helping toward that end.

Thanking you Mr. Editor, I remain sincerely,
