What Cash You Need When Travelling

—and more particularly, when large sums are required—is best carried in the form of a Letter of Credit, issued by The Merchants Bank.

This old established form of international banking is preferred by many experienced travellers because of its absolute security.

Letters of Credit are cashed only by banks or banking corporations, and after the identity of the holders is established in the satisfaction of the bank officials. This insures safety, and guards against loss and theft.

Norval

Following are the addresses as read by Messrs. L. S. Greenwood and Ed. Greenwood on the occasion of the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. H. Pettigrew and family last week. Mr. Walker Thompson made the presentation on behalf of the church and Mr. William Sharp on behalf of the neighbors.

Norval, Ont., October 11th, 1920.
To MR. HENRY PETTIGREW, HIS WIFE AND DAUGHTERS.

We have gathered together this evening, not only as your friends and neighbors, but also as a representation of St. Paul's church, Norval, to express to you all our sincere regret at your coming departure from our midst. We would assure you that the place you leave vacant, as members of the congregation, will be very hard to fill.

And while expressing our regrets we at the same time desire to give voice to the keen appreciation with which, for many years, your faithful and untiring efforts in the interests of the church, and your splendid churchmanship have been regarded.

We have found you at all times willing and eager to give your services in many capacities, all co-operating in every way to bring about that true spirit of unity which is the root and foundation of religious and social life in any congregation, and particularly so in a rural congregation.

We now ask you to accept from the congregation of St. Paul's this token of our regard in which they hold you all. We trust that it may prove a faithful time keeper in your new home, and that it may serve to remind you hourly, in the years to come, of all those who wish you well.

We wish to assure you that you carry with you, upon your departure, the united good will and best wishes of all, and while we feel assured that you will make for yourselves, in your new surroundings, true and firm friends, we only ask that you will not forget the many friends and neighbors among the congregation of St. Paul's church.

C. F. GREENWOOD,
People's Wardens.

On behalf of the congregation of St. Paul's church, Norval, Ont., To HENRY PETTIGREW AND HIS FAMILY

Mr. Pettigrew, it is not a pleasant duty to see you go, particularly to us good-bys, particularly to those whom we have known for almost a life time, but we, your neighbors and friends, could not let the opportunity pass to express to you and your family the sincere regret we feel at your leaving our midst.

You have been a neighbor in all that the name implies, and all of us who have come under your kindly influence will miss you more than we can tell. We know we could always count on your help and advice and we have availed ourselves of the privilege often. As for your good wife, I think we but voice the sentiment of the entire community when we say we all love her. It will seem strange when we can no longer see her smile of welcome when we call at Lilac Hill. She and her daughters by encouragement and help have made a place for themselves that we feel others cannot fill. Words poorly express our thoughts, but you want you, Mrs. Pettigrew and your daughters to know that the community life has been enriched because you have lived among us.

Friendship cannot be measured in money, and only as a token of the esteem in which we hold you, this token is given. May you use it often. It will be a remembrance of the many times we had the friendly cup of tea with you in this home.

Our good friends and neighbors we would wish to keep with us always and it is doubly hard to break associations of forty-five years, but we wish you every happiness in your new home and hope that you will return to visit us often.

On behalf of the neighbors and friends,
GEO. C. BROWN, WM. SHARP, G. H. HERR JACKSON, E. O. GREENWOOD, Committee.

Mr. Pettigrew very feelingly replied, thanking all concerned for their very kind remembrances and extended an invitation for old friends and neighbors to visit them in their new home.

Correspondence

To the Editor of the Herald

Dear Sir:—

At a meeting of citizens on Friday night to discuss social welfare, the case of the Crown against 5 boys for damage was discussed. The two presiding magistrates were present and took part in the discussion during which it was elicited that the suspended sentence was not on the court records, therefore the boys are not on suspended sentence as announced in the Herald of two weeks ago. Will you please in the interests of justice make an announcement to that effect.

W. DIGGINS.

Word Picture of Muskoka Hospital

A WONDERLAND of invigorating pine-scented air, dazzling sunshine, freshly green trees, vibrant blue water! No sound, but the noise of birds.

Set on an elevation—the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives, consisting of an infirmary for bed patients, with veranda overlooking the lake, and many long, low, open-air pavilions, situated on wide, green lawns. White-clad nurses and doctors pass to and fro. Peace and contentment reign. Convalescents bask on sunny lawns, or lie in shaded hammocks. Broken down through overwork, worry, under-nourishment, or other things, nothing to do but get well.

If the sun ever set and a lone young man reverently. Prayers came for pure air and good food had saved his life. The Canadian City of Toronto was a golden path during the son's absence. Had's own spot where a healing hand stretches out to be his grip of life!

Contents may be sent to Sir William Gage, 24 Spadina Avenue, Toronto, or to the Rev. R. H. Treasurer, 214 College Street, Toronto.
