

AND TIME FOR THEM
I shall not ask you much beyond the grave, Just some dear common things that living gave.
And I leave them all, time to play a while,
Where wind blows over grasses, miles on miles.

And I should like one summer afternoon, To climb a hill and wait there for old sunsets,
That I could never wait forward and go.
Unhurried back to certain friends
I know.

Leahall want little paths and woods and walking,
And those same friends at evening talking.
Under dull lamps in queer, quaint, smoky places...
(I would not lose those voices and those faces.)
These I shall seek 'beyond' the part royal drive.
And time for them - which living never gave!

Gave Him Back His

"Well, my dear," said he, as he was dressing, "I suppose you were right when you told me last night that there were burglars in the house." "Why?" "Because all the money that was in my pockets when I went to bed is gone." "Well, if you'd been brave and got up and shot the wretch this morning!" "Possibly, but I don't have the nerve to do it now." She gave him back half the money.

Is Canada to Bar The Door?

Labor leaders and the Labor Party want no immigration to Canada.
Lobbyists have been busy in Ottawa for some time picturing before members the fearful results in employment that would follow.
Canada does not bar the door to immigration. The unemployment situation is not a new one for the past twenty years. Unemployment is still prevalent at the present time is due to the fact that the public has stopped buying goods made by too large a cost per product, with labor first to pay. There is abundance of work in Canada and there will be plenty for everybody to do - mining, engineering, and agriculture. The present difficulty is that capital will not come from the United States. Therefore, the activity of the U.S. is causing a trouble but the scarcity of capital.

The propagandists that Labor leaders have been spreading about labor problems are not so far from the truth. The phase of the immigration question considered by them is how will immigration affect labor supply. Is it to be more or less? how will it affect wages? Labor leaders speak of possible immigration aggregate that will be absorbed but they never mention that 30 to 40 per cent of men, school children, and under-includer in immigration totals, is not true. Statistics show that of every twenty male immigrants over 21 years of age, the average is about three million and the other seven of professional and miscellaneous occupations. What would Canada have done in fifteen years without immigration? What will Canada be in fifteen years before the Ottawa House that all immigration is suspended until a normal condition is effected. This is a question considered. There is a general impression that the only immigrants Canada needs are those going directly to the farms.
In the case of the immigrant coming to Canada go directly to the farm? Mr. W. S. Bennett, member of the United States Senate and a man who worked two and a half years investigating the question of immigration abroad, challenges any statement that the immigrant comes to the United States so far as the immigrant is concerned.

Mr. Bennett goes on to say that the Immigration Commission found that to be 98 per cent of the immigrants in a general way and sometimes very specifically know what employment they will have before they leave their homes, their wives and other dependents. The reason why the immigrant goes abroad is that he expects to find work. But the truth is that he has a better chance to earn a little ready money and that there are also opportunities for him to find work in the city. The immigrant finds the country according to his own ideas.

Mr. Bennett asks the question should anyone blame the Americans for immigrating to the place where he finds competitors, a place of worship, and helpful surroundings for him to get the start in a new life. He cannot see that he has an opportunity in the first few months to gain a wider knowledge of Canadian conditions than people in North America are able to be found in the cities and towns. If when the immigrant first lands he is not trained or even equipped to go down and get a bit of land from the soil, what is the use of sending him out there? It is a disgraceful and unnatural situation. Immigration is a problem of immigration to the people of Canada to-day. Immigration has had a great influence and an out prospect. We should have a policy of not a restrictive policy but a policy of not a restrictive policy of the government. The people generally, should seriously protest against any government action which would prevent the an-

"I say, Gladby," said Mr. Smith, as he replaced a fishmonger's with a lot of twine in his hand, "I want you to give me some fish to take home with me. Put them up to look as if they'd been caught to look well."

"Certainly, sir. How many?"
"Oh, you'd better give me three or four - mackerel. Make it look decent in quantity without appearing exaggerated, you know."

"You, sir. You'd better take salmon, though."

"Why? What makes you think so?"

"Oh, nothing, except that your wife was here early this morning and said if you dropped in with your fishing tackle I was to give you to take salmon, if possible, as she liked that kind better than any other."

A nervous woman went to see her throat examined by a physician while white adjusting the laryscope. "You'd be surprised to know how down we can get with this instrument," he said.

"It's that, doctor?" faltered the patient. Then, after a pause, she said: "Before you begin, I ought to tell you that I really hadn't time to mend that hole in my stocking before I came here."
